THE

NEWPORT MERCURY.

TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1798. [N° 1893.]

NEWPORT: (Rhode-Island) Published by HENRY BARBER, near the State-House.

THE Subscriber being appointed by the Hon. Town-Council, of South Kingston, Administrator to the Estate of PHILIP CASE, late of said Town, Widow, deceased; hereby notifies all those who have any Demands against said Estate to bring them in for Settlement, and those indebted to it, to make Payment immediately, otherwise their Accounts, &c. will be put in suit at the next Court.

SAMUEL PERRY, Administrator.

South Kingston, July 14th, 1798.

TAKE NOTICE.

THE Hon. Town Council of South-Kingston, on the 9th Day of July, 1798, appointed the Subscribers, Commissioners, to receive and examine the Claims of the Creditors to the Estate of Mr. AUGUSTUS BABCOCK, late of South Kingston, deceased, represented insolvent, and allowed Six Months to receive said Claims—We therefore give Notice to the Creditors as aforesaid, that we will attend at the Dwelling House of Mr. Peter Bos, on the first Thursday in the Five succeeding Months, from 1 to 4 o'Clock, P. M. for that Purpose. Original Entries and original Obligations will be required to substantiate Demands.

JOHN SEGAR, SAMUEL HELME, } Commissioners.

South Kingston, July 10, 1798.

TO BE SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, at the House where the above named Augustus Babcock last dwelt, in South Kingston, on the first Tuesday in August next,

A QUANTITY of Live Stock, of a superior Quality, consisting of Oxen, Cows, and young Cattle, Horses and Sheep, also Farming Utensils, and a Quantity of excellent Sheep's Fleece Wool, &c. &c. &c.

All Persons indebted to said Estate, are hereby informed, that unless they make immediate Payment to the undersigned, the Demands against them will be put in Suit. PELEG BABCOCK, F. PERRY, } Administrators.

South Kingston, July 10th, 1798.

State of Rhode-Island, &c.

County of Newport, ss.

WHEREAS Mary Stanton, of Newport, in the County of Newport, Wife of Daniel Smith Stanton, late Resident in said Newport, Mariner, alias Labourer, hath filed in the Clerk's Office of the Superior Court of Judicature, &c. in said County, her Petition for Divorce, to the next Superior Court, to be holden in said County on the last Monday in August next—Therefore Notice is hereby given to the said Daniel, and to all Persons concerned, to appear at said Court, if they think fit, and answer to said Petition.

By Order of Court,

CHRIST. ELLERY, Clerk.

Newport, July 13th, 1798.

FOR SALE,

THAT valuable Estate, late the Property of CALEB EARL, situate in Newport, on Rhode-Island, and about Fifty Rods from the State-House, on Broad-street.—It consists of one large, convenient Dwelling-House, in good Repair, which stands on a Lot of about One Acre of Land, which has been improved as a Garden, in which there is a good Well of Water, with several other Lots on the opposite Side of the Street, which has been improved as a Meadow, and cuts about Six Tons of Hay yearly; with a Stable, and some other small Tenements on said Lots; together with a Lot of Land of about Two Acres, lying by the Windmills in the Fork of the Roads leading to Howland's Ferry and Bristol Ferry.—Said Premises will be sold altogether, or in Parts, as may best suit the Purchaser or Purchasers.—For Terms apply to the Subscriber, living on the Premises,

JOB CHALONER.

Newport, 6th Month, 16th, 1798.

WANTS A PLACE,

A YOUNG WOMAN, with a good Breast of Milk, who can be well recommended. Inquire of the Printer. July 3.

Gibbs & Channing

Have for Sale, for Cash, or on a reasonable Credit with approved Notes payable at the Bank of Rhode, Island—

HYSON, Young Hyson, Suchong, and Bohea TEAS, of the latest Importation, warranted to be of the first Quality, by the Whole Half, or Quarter Chests.

China, in Dining, Breakfast, and Tea Setts, per Box.

Best St. Petersburgh clean Hemp.

Cordage and Cables, of all Dimensions

Spike Rods and Iron Hoops.

Jamaica Sugar, Windward Island Rum and Molasses per Hogshead.

Best French Brandy and Holland Gin, fourth Proof, per Butt.

New-England Rum, by the Hogshead, or Cargo, on short Notice.

6 by 8, and 7 by 9, Window Glass, by the box or larger Quantity.

Superfine and fine Flour.

Tar, Pitch, Salt, &c.

Nicolas Jeffroy,

WATCH MAKER & JEWELER,

THAMES STREET—NEWPORT,

HAS just received, and for Sale, a great Variety of Geneva, French, and English WATCHES; Chrystals, Seals, Keys, Chains, &c. by Wholesale. Also, an elegant Assortment of JEWELRY, with all Kinds of Necklaces, Rings, Trinkets Toys &c. &c.

LIKEWISE.

A great Assortment of Turtleshell, English Horn, and Dressing Combs; Tea Trays; Tea Pots; Cream Pots, &c.—Different Kinds of Razors and Razor Strops; Penknives and Scissors; Looking Glasses; Flutes; Fifes; Fiddles Strings; Patent Lamps and Candlesticks; Gentlemens' Epaulets and Suspenders; Ladies' Hat and Waistbands; Paints and Colour in Boxes; Ladies' and Gentlemens' Morocco Pocket Books & Purses; Shoe and Knee Buckles; Plated Spurs; Stirrup Irons; Silver and Britannia Table and Tea Spoons; Soap Ladles, &c. Variety of China, Paper, and Leather Snuff-Boxes; Shot Bags and Powder Flasks.

ALSO.

Just received from London and Naples, a fresh Supply of PERFUMERY; Pomatum; Hair Powder; Windsor and Cream Soap; Patent Shot Blacking; Dressing Cases, &c. &c. with all necessary Aparatus.

☞ He presents his grateful Acknowledgements for the numerous Favours he has received, and invites the Public in general, and the Citizens of Newport in particular, to continue his Customers.

N. B. Cash given for old Gold and Silver.

Newport, July 2, 1798.

C. Fowler & Co.

Have for SALE, at their Stores on Mr. LANGLEY's Wharf, at the lowest Rate for Cash or approved Notes,

JAMAICA Spirits, West-India and New England Rum, per Hogshead or Barrel.

Brandy, 1st to 4th Proof, and best Holland Geneva by the Pipe or Barrel.

20 Hogsheads good retailing Molasses.

A few Casks of first Quality Old Sherry Wine.

Madeira, Lisbon, Malaga and Fayal Ditto, per Quarter-Cask.

Havannah Sugars, per Box or Barrel.

A few Casks new Rice.

Beef, in Barrels and Half Barrels.

Superfine & Common Flour, and Middlings.

150 Bushels of Corn.

A Quantity of white Beans, and black eyed Peas.

ALSO,—

Pepper, Pimento, Mace, Nutmegs, Coffee, Ginger, Loaf Sugar, Fine Teas—Starch, Sweet Oil, Chocolate, fresh Raisins, Negro Head Tobacco, Nails, White Lead, German Steel, Sewing and Seine Twine, and a few Boxes 6 by 8 and 7 by 9 Window Glass.

The following STAMP DUTIES took place the first of this month.

	D.	C.
For every certificate of naturalization,	5	0
Any licence to practise, or certificate of the the admission, enrollment or regestry of any Counseller, Solicitor, Attorney, Advocate or Proctor, in any court of the United States,	10	0
Any grants, or letters patent under the seal of the United States (except for lands granted for military services)	4	0
Any exemplification, or certified copy of such grant, &c.	2	0
Any charter party, bottomry, or respondentia bond.	1	0
Any receipt, or other discharge, on account of any legacy left by will, or for any share in a personal estate divided by force of any statute of distributions, the amount whereof is above the value of fifty dollars, and not more than a hundred.	0	25
Any ditto, where the amount exceeds a hundred, and does not exceed five hundred dollars,	0	50
Ditto, for every further sum of five hundred dollars, the additional sum	1	0
Any policy of insurance, or instrument in nature thereof, whereby any ships, vessels or goods going from one district to another in the United States, or from the United States to any foreign port shall be insured, viz.
If from one district to another in the United States,	0	25
If going from the United States to any foreign port, when the sum insured shall not exceed five hundred dollars,	0	25
When the sum shall exceed five hundred dollars,	1	0
Any exemplification of what nature soever, that shall pass the seal of any court (except such as it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to furnish for the use of the United States, or some particular state)	0	50
Any bonds, bills, bugle or penal, foreign or inland bills of exchange, promissary note, or other note for the security of money, according to the following scale, viz.
On all bonds, bills of notes, above twenty dollars, and not exceeding a hundred	0	10
Ditto, above one hundred, and not exceeding five hundred	0	25
Ditto, above five hundred and not exceeding a thousand	0	50
Ditto, above one thousand dolls.	0	75
Bonds or notes, payable at or within sixty days, two fifths of the above duty,
Bank notes, not exceeding fifty dollars, at the rate of three-fifths of a cent for every dollar
Ditto above fifty dollars, and not exceeding one hundred	0	50
Ditto, above one hundred dollars, and not exceeding five hundred	1	0
Ditto, above five hundred	2	0
Any letter of attorney (except on account of militia pensions or land warrants)	0	25

One quarter per cent. to be retained for the use of the United States, of the amount of all drawbacks allowed on the exportation of goods, in addition to the one per cent. at present retained, in lieu of a stamp duty.

Ditto, for five hundred, and not exceeding two thousand dollars	2	0
Ditto, for more than two thousand dollars	3	0
Any note or bill of lading, for exporting goods from one district to another, not being in the same state	0	10
Ditto, for any foreign port	0	25
An inventory of furniture, goods, or effects, made in any case required by law (except in cases of goods distrained for rent or taxes, or taken in virtue of any legal process)	0	50
Any certificate of a share in any Bank in the United States, above twenty dollars, and not exceeding one hundred,	0	10
Ditto, above one hundred dollars	0	25
Ditto, for every less sum than twenty dollars, at the rate of ten cents for a hundred dollars, and the same for any less sum of the amount of the shares expressed in such certificate.

Vellum and parchment to be paid for over and above the price of the stamp; but not paper.

Every purchaser of stamps to the amount of ten dollars, of a supervisor, to be allowed a discount of 7½ per cent.

From the GAZETTE of the UNITED STATES.

THE Jacobins have taken paine to revive the distinction of Whig and Tory, which prevailed during our revolutionary contest, as if it were descriptive of the parties at this day. Whether this is done from zeal to and solicitude for the gooverment of our country, or whether to cloak, or dissemble their disaffection, is a question not very difficult to be answered. If by the word Tory be meant a person who was opposed to the revolution, but now like a good citizen, supports the constitution, and is obedient to the laws of his country, the word is misapplied and means nothing; if it is intended to denote an attachment to a foreign nation or government, in preference to our own, it falls short of the mark, because the word Traitor would be much more pertinent. Why do the Jacobins refrain from using the word Traitor; is it from tenderness of heart, or is it because they are afraid that it will recoil upon themselves? It is worthy of remark that though they are very industrious to denounce others as Tories, yet they are not fond of assuming to themselves the character of Whigs. From whatever cause this forbearance proceeds, the fact is remarkable. We do not hear of Whig societies, Whig clubs, Whig tickets, or Whig candidates or representatives; but we do hear abundance of patriots, democrats, or republicans. Now and then indeed, we see a juvenile composition in a newspaper or a handbill subscribed "a Whig of 1776" the effusion of one who has sucked in whiggism with his mother's milk, or inherited it from his father. Again the question recurs, whence proceeds this lenity in withholding the word Traitor from the Tory, and the word Whig from the public accuser? If the spirit of '76 is to be revived, let it not be in part, but in the whole, and let not these anti-tories (as they would be thought) shelter themselves under the indefinite, ambigious, and equivocal name of Republicans, remembering that Robespierre, Danton, and Marat, as well as Brissot and Roland, were also republicans.—Perhaps the true secret of their declining the honourable appellation of Whigs having respect to the revolutionary movements, is the true contrast to the word Tories, may be discovered from recurring to the Times, when these words were first used, "whoever is not for us is against us" was the current language and acknowledged standard of whiggism and toryism in seventy five. Let the jacobin, the anti federalist, the democrat, and the exclusive republican undergo a little self examination by this criterion. It will be a wholesome discipline, but it must be performed without evasion or secret reservation. Let him not deceive himself by saying, that he is for his country, but opposed to its government, or that he is for the government, but opposed to its administration, or that being opposed to all he is still a Republican.

Let him, if he should lay claim to the character of a Whig, recollect that the spirit of '76 was not to excite disunion, but "unite or die"; not to scatter pitiful suspicions and base jealousies, but to inculate a manly and even unbounded confidence in those whom the people had chosen to act for them; not to resist or to contravene, but to pay implicit obedience to the acts and even recommendations of Congress; not like Frenchmen, capriciously to raise and fall down; but like Americans steadily to support their tried and approved servants, their Washington, their Adams, Jay, &c. not to reproach a man for political opinions he held twenty years before, but to judge of him by his principles at the existing crisis; not to chill or freeze the heart, or paralize the arm, but to animate and inspire ardor and exertions in the cause of their country; not like the athletical Gauls to renounce, but in the spirit of our forefathers, to cherish a firm reliance on God and Divine Providence; not to be "hewers of wood and drawers of water" to any nation upon earth, but in the spirit of real and national independence, to consider all nations alike, "enemies in war, in peace friends." I will not tire the reader by delineating as a contrast, the character of the anti federalist, democrat, and exclusive republican. "By their fruits ye shall know them." But if the distinction of Whig and Tory must be revived, and if they have no pretensions to the character of Whigs, the consequence, is, that they are themselves what they denominate others, TORIES: though, perhaps, FRENCH TORIES would be still more descriptive.

A FEDERALIST.

M Matthews Weaver

THE

NEWPORT MERCURY.

TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1798. [No 1893.]

NEWPORT: (Rhode-Island) Published by HENRY BARBER, near the State-House.

THE Subscriber being appointed by the Hon. Town-Council, of South Kingston, Administrator to the Estate of PHILIP CASE, late of said Town, Widow, deceased; hereby notifies all those who have any Demands against said Estate to bring them in for Settlement, and those indebted to it, to make Payment immediately, otherwise their Accounts, &c. will be put in suit at the next Court.

SAMUEL PERRY, Administrator.

South Kingston, July 14th, 1798.

TAKE NOTICE.

THE Hon. Town Council of South-Kingston, on the 9th Day of July, 1798, appointed the Subscribers, Commissioners, to receive and examine the Claims of the Creditors to the Estate of Mr. AUGUSTUS BABCOCK, late of South Kingston, deceased, represented insolvent, and allowed Six Months to receive said Claims—We therefore give Notice to the Creditors as aforesaid, that we will attend at the Dwelling House of Mr. Peter Bose, on the first Thursday in the Five succeeding Months, from 1 to 4 o'Clock, P. M. for that Purpose. Original Entries and original Obligations will be required to substantiate Demands.

JOHN SEGAR, SAMUEL HELME. } Commissioners.

South Kingston, July 10, 1798.

TO BE SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, at the House where the above named Augustus Babcock last dwelt, in South Kingston, on the first Tuesday in August next,

A QUANTITY of Live Stock, of a superior Quality, consisting of Oxen, Cows, and young Cattle, Horses and Sheep, also Farming Utensils, and a a Quantity of excellent Sheep's Fleece Wool, &c. &c. &c.

All Persons indebted to said Estate, are hereby informed, that unless they make immediate Payment to the undersigned, the Demands against them will be put in Suit. PELEG BABCOCK, F. PERRY. } Administrators.

South Kingston, July 10th, 1798.

State of Rhode-Island, &c.

County of Newport, ss.

WHEREAS Mary Stanton, of Newport, in the County of Newport, Wife of Daniel Smith Stanton, late Resident in said Newport, Mariner, alias Labourer, hath filed in the Clerk's Office of the Superior Court of Judicature, &c. in said County, her Petition for Divorce, to the next Superior Court, to be holden in said County on the last Monday in August next—Therefore Notice is hereby given to the said Daniel, and to all Persons concerned, to appear at said Court, if they think fit, and answer to said Petition.

By Order of Court,

CHRIST. ELLERY, Clerk.

Newport, July 13th, 1798.

FOR SALE,

THAT valuable Estate, late the Property of CALEB EARL, situate in Newport, on Rhode-Island, and about Fifty Rods from the State-House, on Broad-street.—It consists of one large, convenient Dwelling-House, in good Repair, which stands on a Lot of about One Acre of Land, which has been improved as a Garden, in which there is a good Well of Water, with several other Lots on the opposite Side of the Street, which has been improved as a Meadow, and cuts about Six Tons of Hay yearly; with a Stable, and some other small Tenements on said Lots; together with a Lot of Land of about Two Acres, lying by the Windmills in the Fork of the Roads leading to Howland's Ferry and Bristol Ferry.—Said Premises will be sold altogether, or in Parts, as may best suit the Purchaser or Purchasers.—For Terms apply to the Subscriber, living on the Premises,

JOB CHALONER.

Newport, 6th Month, 16th, 1798.

WANTS A PLACE,

A YOUNG WOMAN, with a good Breast of Milk, who can be well recommended. Inquire of the Printer. July 3.

Gibbs & Channing

Have for Sale, for Cash, or on a reasonable Credit with approved Notes payable at the Bank of Rhode, Island——

HYSON, Young Hyson, Suchong, and Bohea TEAS, of the latest Importation, warranted to be of the first Quality, by the Whole Half, or Quarter Chests.

China, in Dining, Breakfast, and Tea Setts, per Box.

Best St. Petersburgh clean Hemp.

Cordage and Cables, of all Dimensions

Spike Rods and Iron Hoops.

Jamaica Sugar, Windward Island Rum and Molasses per Hogshead.

Best French Brandy and Holland Gin, fourth Proof, per Butt.

New-England Rum, by the Hogshead, or Cargo, on short Notice.

6 by 8, and 7 by 9, Window Glass, by the box or larger Quantity.

Superfine and fine Flour.

Tar, Pitch, Salt, &c.

Nicolas Jeffroy,

WATCH MAKER & JEWELER,

THAMES STREET—NEWPORT,

HAS just received, and for Sale, a great Variety of Geneva, French, and English WATCHES; Chrystals, Seals, Keys, Chains, &c. by Wholesale. Also, an elegant Assortment of JEWELRY, with all Kinds of Necklaces, Rings, Trinkets Toys &c. &c.

LIKEWISE.

A great Assortment of Turtleshell, English Horn, and Dressing Combs; Tea Trays; Tea Pots; Cream Pots, &c.—Different Kinds of Razors and Razor Strops; Penknives and Scissors; Looking Glasses; Flutes; Fifes; Fiddles strings; Patent Lamps and Candlesticks; Gentlemens' Epaulets and Suspenders; Ladies' Hat and Waistbands; Paints and Colour in Boxes; Ladies' and Gentlemens' Morocco Pocket Books & Purses; Shoe and Knee Buckles; Plated Spurs; Stirrup Irons; Silver and Britannia Table and Tea Spoons; Soup Ladles, &c. Variety of China, Paper, and Leather Snuff-Boxes; Shot Bags and Powder Flasks.

A L S O,

Just received from London and Naples, a fresh Supply of PERFUMERY; Pomatum; Hair Powder; Windsor and Cream Soap; Patent Shoe Blacking; Dressing Cases, &c. &c. with all necessary Aparatus.

☞ He presents his grateful Acknowledgements for the numerous Favours he has received, and invites the Public in general, and the Citizens of Newport in particular, to continue his Customers.

N. B. Cash given for old Gold and Silver.

Newport, July 2, 1798.

C. Fowler & Co.

Have for SALE, at their Stores on Mr. LANGLEY's Wharf, at the lowest Rate for Cash or approved Notes,

JAMAICA Spirits, West-India and New England Rum, per Hogshead or Barrel.

Brandy, 1st to 4th Proof, and best Holland Geneva by the Pipe or Barrel.

20 Hogsheads good retailing Molasses.

A few Casks of first Quality Old Sherry Wine.

Madeira, Lisbon, Malaga and Fayal Ditto, per Quarter-Cask.

Havannah Sugars, per Box or Barrel.

A few Casks new Rice.

Beef, in Barrels and Half Barrels.

Superfine & Common Flour, and Middlings.

150 Bushels of Corn.

A Quantity of white Beans, and black eyed Peas.

A L S O,——

Pepper, Pimento, Mace, Nutmegs, Cassia, Ginger, Loaf Sugar, Fine Teas—Starch, sweet Oil, Chocolate, fresh Raisins, Negro Head Tobacco, Nails, White Lead, German Steel, Sewing and Seine Twine, and a few Boxes 6 b. 8. and 7 by 9 Window Glass.

The following STAMP DUTIES took place the first of this month.

	D.	C.
For every certificate of naturalization,	5	0
Any licence to practise, or certificate of the the admission, enrollment or regestry of any Counseller, Solicitor, Attorney, Advocate or Proctor, in any court of the United States,	10	0
Any grants, or letters patent under the seal of the United States (except for lands granted for military services)	4	0
Any exemplification, or certified copy of such grant, &c.	2	0
Any charter party, bottomry, or respondentia bond.	1	0
Any receipt, or other discharge, on account of any legacy left by will, or for any share in a personal estate divided by force of any statute of distributions, the amount whereof is above the value of fifty dollars, and not more than a hundred.	0	25
Any ditto, where the amount exceeds a hundred, and does not exceed five hundred dollars,	0	50
Ditto, for every further sum of five hundred dollars, the additional sum	1	0
Any policy of insurance, or instrument in nature thereof, whereby any ships, vessels or goods going from one district to another in the United States, or from the United States to any foreign port shall be insured, viz.
If from one district to another in the United States,	0	25
If going from the United States to any foreign port, when the sum insured shall not exceed five hundred dollars,	0	25
When the sum shall exceed five hundred dollars,	1	0
Any exemplification of what nature soever, that shall pass the seal of any court (except such as it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to furnish for the use of the United States, or some particular state)	0	50
Any bonds, bills, bugle or penal, foreign or inland bills of exchange, promissary note, or other note for the security of money, according to the following scale, viz.
On all bonds, bills of notes, above twenty dollars, and not exceeding a hundred	0	10
Ditto, above one hundred, and not exceeding five hundred	0	25
Ditto, above five hundred and not exceeding a thousand	0	50
Ditto, above one thousand dolls.	0	75
Bonds or notes, payable at or within sixty days, two fifths of the above duty,
Bank notes, not exceeding fifty dollars, at the rate of three-fifths of a cent for every dollar
Ditto above fifty dollars, and not exceeding one hundred	0	50
Ditto, above one hundred dollars, and not exceeding five hundred	1	0
Ditto, above five hundred	2	0
Any letter of attorney (except on account of militia pensions or land warrants)	0	25

One quarter per cent. to be retained for the use of the United States, of the amount of all drawbacks allowed on the exportation of goods, in addition to the one per cent. at present retained, in lieu of a stamp duty.

Ditto, for five hundred, and not exceeding two thousand dollars	2	0
Ditto, for more than two thousand dollars	3	0
Any note or bill of lading, for exporting goods from one district to another, not being in the same state	0	10
Ditto, for any foreign port	0	25
An inventory of furniture, goods, or effects, made in any case required by law (except in cases of goods distrained for rent or taxes, or taken in virtue of any legal process)	0	50
Any certificate of a share in any Bank in the United States, above twenty dollars, and not exceeding one hundred,	0	10
Ditto, above one hundred dollars	0	25
Ditto, for every less sum than twenty dollars, at the rate of ten cents for a hundred dollars, and the same for any less sum of the amount of the shares expressed in such certificate.

Vellum and parchment to be paid for over and above the price of the stamp; but not paper.

Every purchaser of stamps to the amount of ten dollars, of a supervisor, to be allowed a discount of 7½ per cent.

From the GAZETTE of the UNITED STATES.

THE Jacobins have taken paine to revive the distinction of Whig and Tory, which prevailed during our revolutionary contest, as if it were descriptive of the parties at this day. Whether this is done from zeal to and solicitude for the goovernment of our country, or whether to cloak, or dissemble their disaffection, is a question not very difficult to be answered. If by the word Tory be meant a person who was opposed to the revolution, but now like a good citizen, supports the constitution, and is obedient to the laws of his country, the word is misapplied and means nothing; if it is intended to denote an attachment to a foreign nation or government, in preference to our own, it falls short of the mark, because the word Traitor would be much more pertinent. Why do the Jacobins refrain from using the word Traitor; is it from tenderness of heart, or is it because they are afraid that it will recoil upon themselves? It is worthy of remark, that though they are very industrious to denounce others as Tories, yet they are not fond of assuming to themselves the character of Whigs. From whatever cause this forbearance proceeds, the fact is remarkable. We do not hear of Whig societies, Whig clubs, Whig tickets, or Whig candidates or representatives; but we do hear abundance of patriots, democrats, or republicans. Now and then indeed, we see a juvenile composition in a newspaper or a handbill subscribed "a Whig of 1776" the effusion of one who has sucked in whiggism with his mother's milk, or inherited it from his father. Again the question recurs, whence proceeds this lenity in withholding the word Traitor from the Tory, and the word Whig from the public accuser? If the spirit of '76 is to be revived, let it not be in part, but in the whole, and let not these anti-tories (as they would be thought) shelter themselves under the indefinite, ambigious, and equivocal name of Republicans, remembering that Robespierre, Danton, and Marat, as well as Brissot and Roland, were also republicans.—Perhaps the true secret of their declining the honourable appellation of Whigs having respect to the revolutionary movements, is the true contrast to the word Tories, may be discovered from recurring to the Times, when these words were first used, "whoever is not for us is against us" was the current language and acknowledged standard of whiggism and toryism in seventy five. Let the jacobin, the anti-federalist, the democrat, and the exclusive republican undergo a little self examination, by this criterion. It will be a wholesome discipline, but it must be performed without evasion or secret reservation. Let him not deceive himself by saying, that he is for his country, but opposed to its government, or that he is for the government, but opposed to its administration, or that being opposed to all he is still a Republican.

Let him, if he should lay claim to the character of a Whig, recollect that the spirit of '76 was not to excite disunion, but "unite or die"; not to scatter pitiful suspicions and base jealousies, but to inculate a manly and even unbounded confidence in those whom the people had chosen to act for them; not to resist or to contravene, but to pay implicit obedience to the acts and even recommendations of Congress; not like Frenchmen, capriciously to raise and fall down; but like Americans steadily to support their tried and approved servants, their Washington, their Adams, Jay, &c. not to reproach a man for political opinions he held twenty years before, but to judge of him by his principles at the existing crisis; not to chill or freeze the heart, or paralize the arm, but to animate and inspire ardor and exertions in the cause of their country; not like the athletical Gauls to renounce, but in the spirit of our forefathers, to cherish a firm reliance on God and Divine Providence; not to be "hewers of wood and drawers of water" to any nation upon earth, but in the spirit of real and national independence, to consider all nations alike, "enemies in war, in peace friends." I will not tire the reader by delineating as a contrast, the character of the anti federalist, democrat, and exclusive republican. "By their fruits ye shall know them." But if the distinction of Whig and Tory must be revived, and if they have no pretensions to the character of Whigs, the consequence, is, that they are themselves what they denominate others, TORIES; though, perhaps, FRENCH TORIES would be still more descriptive.

A FEDERALIST.

For the NEWPORT MERCURY.

ALIEN AND SEDITION BILLS.

THE Alien Bill provides, that it shall be lawful for the President "to order all such aliens as he shall judge dangerous to the peace and safety of the United States, or shall have reasonable grounds to suspect are concerned in any treasonable or secret machinations against the government thereof, to depart out of the United States in such time as shall be expressed in such order."

While this Bill was under discussion, Mr. Livingston, of New York, opposed it in the House of Representatives on the ground of its unconstitutionality.—In one of the most virulent and inflammatory speeches ever delivered in a deliberative assembly, he took occasion to say, that "the People ought not to submit to this measure they would deserve the chains forging for them if they did not resist." "They will resist," he again says, "this tyranical system the people will oppose, they ought not to acquiesce, and I pray to God they never may." Infamous as it was to utter such language, it is almost criminal to repeat it—Yet this Speech has been printed and reprinted in all the papers of the French faction.

A writer in the New York Daily Advertiser has condescended to answer and refute this extraordinary speech—The weakness of its reasoning and the atrocity of its design are exposed in such a manner as must make Treason itself recoil with conscious imbecillity and guilt—he establishes in the fullest manner the political expediency of the measure, and the constitutional power of Congress.

The most important, and almost the only question which can arise in the discussion of this Bill, is, whether a nation has a right to remove aliens at its pleasure, and on this question a single authority from the Laws (quoted by the writer above mentioned) will be sufficient—Vattel (b. 1. ch. 19) says, "Every nation has a proper and exclusive right to the country of its settlement, and it has a right of refusing to admit a stranger into the country, when it cannot be done without putting it in imminent danger, or without doing it a remarkable prejudice—what it owes to itself, the care of its own safety, gives it this right and in virtue of its natural liberty the nation is to judge whether it is or is not in a proper situation to receive a stranger.—He cannot settle by a full right but must ask permission of the superior of the place, and if it is refused it is his place to submit"—Again (b. 2. ch. 10) "If particular and solid reasons hinder its giving him an asylum, this man has no longer any right to demand it; because in such a case, the country inhabited by the nation, cannot at the same time serve for its own use, and that of this stranger. Thus a nation whose lands are scarcely sufficient to supply the wants of the citizens, is not obliged to receive a company of fugitives or exiles—Therefore it ought absolutely to eject them as much as if they were infected by a contagious disease.—Thus it has a right to send them elsewhere, if it has just cause to fear that they will corrupt the manners of the citizens; create religious disturbances, or occasion some other disorder contrary to the public safety."

The right of a nation to remove aliens at its pleasure being established, the manner of exercising this right must of course be prescribed by the nation within itself, and while the Supreme Legislature of our Country is in the act of prescribing the manner in which this right shall be exercised, they are told by one of their body, that the People will and ought to resist the execution of the Law which they are enacting.

It has also been said, that the Sedition Bill is an infringement of the Amendment to the Constitution, which says, that "Congress shall make no Law abridging the freedom of speech or of the Press"—Sedition always has been and now is, A CRIME by the Laws of all nations—and shall it be said, that a Law for defining and punishing an infamous crime, is a Law abridging the freedom of speech or the press?—to arrive at this conclusion we must prove that freedom of speech or of the press is a CRIME, and that the Constitution meant to protect crimes from punishment.—It has been doubted whether offences at common Law were cognizable in the Courts of the United States, without an express Law of the United States for defining and punishing such offences. If the Courts of the United States have no jurisdiction, such offences must be tried in the State Courts and punished by a diversity of Laws, in some more, in others, less severe.—If seditious practices were carried on in a State unfriendly to the Government of the United States, they would, perhaps, entirely escape punishment: If in a State warmly attached to the Government, they might be punished too severely—it therefore becomes necessary to establish an uniform definition of the crime, and to affect an uniform punishment.—This has been done by Congress, and the punishment they have enacted is far milder than it would before at common Law.

The crime of Sedition is almost exclusively confined to populous cities, and the experience of all nations has proved, that in every great crisis of public affairs, the inhabitants of populous cities are liable to divulsions, and that arbitrary principles of Government are necessary to curb the licentiousness of desperate and factious men.—This fact has been forcibly exhibited in the whole course of the French Revolution—a factious minority of desperate and bloody assassins, in the city of Paris, has in almost every instance dictated Laws to the whole French Empire, by intimidating and controuling the Legislative Body, while the great body of well disposed citizens, the mechanic, the farmer, and the merchant, scattered over an extensive territory, were successively the spectators and the victims of this execrable tyranny.

The well disposed Citizens of America, the Landholders in particular, ought to be on their guard against this evil—they must give Confidence to the Government and Energy to the Laws, to preserve their own due Weight and Influence—they must aid in suppressing seditious practices, or our Government, like that of France, will become the dupe of a bloody faction.

SEDITION ACT.

An ACT in addition to an Act entitled "An Act for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States."

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That if any persons shall unlawfully combine or conspire together with intent to oppose any measure or measures of the government of the United States, which are or shall be directed by proper authority, or to impede the operation of any law of the United States, or to intimidate or prevent any person holding a place or office in or under the government of the United States, from undertaking, performing or executing his trust or duty; and if any person or persons as aforesaid, shall counsel, advise or attempt to procure any insurrection, riot, unlawful assembly or combination, whether such conspiracy, threatening, counsel, advice or attempt shall have the proposed effect or not, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction, before any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment during a term not less than six months nor exceeding five years; and further, at the discretion of the court, may be holden to find sureties for the good behaviour, in such sum and for such time, as the said court may direct.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall write, print, utter or publish, or shall cause or procure to be written, printed, uttered, or published, or shall knowingly and willingly assist or aid in writing, printing, uttering, or publishing any false, scandalous and malicious writing or writings against the government of the United States, or either House of the Congress of the United States, or the President of the United States, with intent to defame the said government, or either House of the said Congress, or the said President, or to bring them or either of them into contempt or disrepute—or to excite against them, or any of them, the hatred of the good people of the United States, or to stir up sedition within the United States, or to excite any unlawful combinations therein, for opposing or resisting any law of the United States, or any act of the President of the United States, done in pursuance of any such law, or of the powers in him vested by the constitution of the United States, or to resist, oppose, or defeat any such law or act, or aid, encourage or abet any hostile designs of any foreign nation against the United States, their people or government, then such person, being thereof convicted before any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, and by imprisonment not exceeding two years.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall be prosecuted under this act, for the writing or publishing any libel aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the defendant, upon the trial of the cause, to give in evidence in his defence, the truth of the matter contained in the publication charged as a libel. And the jury who shall try the cause, shall have a right to determine the law and the fact, under the direction of the court as in other cases.

Sect 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall continue and be in force until the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and one, and no longer: Provided, that the expiration of the act shall not prevent or defeat a prosecution and punishment of any offence against the law, during the time it shall be in force.

Foreign Intelligence.

By the Venilia, Bates, arrived at Boston, in 53 Days from Liverpool:

VIENNA, May 2.

THE Baron Thugut, Minister for Foreign Affairs, has been dismissed, at his own request; and appointed as General Commissary of our new possessions on the Adriatic.—[It will be recollected, however, that the French Ambassador demanded the displacement of Thugut.

The reports of the recommencement of the war increase. New troops are raising.

Bernadotte has set off from Rastadt for Paris

FRANKFORT, May 5.

A large body of French troops is assembling near Dusseldorff, from Belgium, &c. The expedition against England, it is thought, will be deferred until peace is concluded with the Empire.

The Austrian army in the Tyrol is to be reinforced with 6000 men.

RASTADT, May 5.

The Deputation of the Empire has received the long expected answer of the French Ministers. It contains the most extravagant demands of cessions on the Rhine.—Demands which we think will be refused with disdain.

The prospect now is more warlike than pacific; and preparations are making for the Arch Duke Charles, Gen. Mack, the Prince of Furstenburg, and Gen. De Vins, to take the field, as separate commanders, on the Rhine, in the Tyrol, and in Italy.

Letters from Turin, confirm the advantages gained by the royal troops over the Piedmontese Insurgents, near Lake Major.

The Batavian Minister has not yet been recognized at Vienna!

Official Account of the Affair at Ostend.

[We have received, by the Venilia, a handbill dated May 24, with an official account of the issue of the English expedition against Ostend.—It is given in several letters which, of necessity, occasions many repetitions.—The following contains every important fact. It may be necessary however to observe, that the Bruges Canal was the grand vein of the inland navigation between Holland, Flanders and France; and its destruction was conceived an object of such importance, that Major General Coote, who commanded the troops on the expedition, observed, that if the surf should prevent the retreat of his men, the success of the enterprize would be a full compensation. The whole number of vessels engaged in the undertaking were 21, large and small, principally gun boats. Three seamen were killed and sixteen wounded. The number of soldiers made prisoners, private accounts compute at 1300—there is no official statement.]

LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

Parliament street, May 22, '98.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received by the Rt. Hon. H. Dundas, from Lieut. Col. Warde, of the 1st Reg. of Guards, dated on board the Expedition frigate, eight o'clock, P. M. May 20, 1798.

SIR,

IN consequence of the Minerva frigate (on board of which were the four light infantry companies of the 1st regiment of Foot Guards) having unfortunately lost her situation in the squadron under the command of Capt. Pepham, of the Royal Navy, during the night of the 18th inst. the command of the remainder of the troops, from that accident, has devolved upon me; and I have the honor to transmit you the most correct account that I have been able to collect.

Early in the morning of the 19th inst. the following troops, under the command of Major General Coote, viz.

Two companies, light infantry, Coldstream Guards,
Two ditto, ditto, 3d Guards,
11th Regiment of foot.
23d and 49 flank companies,

with six pieces of ordnance, disembarked, and effected their landing, at 3 o'clock, in the morning, to the eastward of Ostend, and completed the object of the expedition, by burning a number of boats destined for the invasion of England, and by so completely destroying the Locks and Bason Gates of the Bruges Canal, that it was this morning without a drop of water; and as I understand all the transports fitting out at Flushing were intended to be brought to Ostend and Dunkirk by the inland navigation, to avoid our cruizers, that arrangement will be defeated, and it will be a long time before the works can be repaired, as they were five years finishing, and were esteemed the most complete works of the kind in Europe. The troops had retreated, and were ready to re embark by twelve o'clock, the same morning, with the loss of only one rank and file killed, and one seaman wounded, but found it impossible from the wind having encreased, and the surf running so high as entirely to prevent their regaining the boats, upon which they took up a position on the Sand Hills above the beach, where they lay the whole of that day and night upon their arms. The enemy taking advantage of the length of time and the night, collected in very great force, and soon after day break this morning, attacked them, on every side, when, after a most noble and gallant defence, I am grieved to add, they were under the necessity of capitulating, to a great superiority of numbers.

I herewith inclose a list of the killed and wounded, and I have every reason to believe it correct.

Lieut. Col. Hely, 22th Foot, killed,
Major Gen. Coote, wounded,
Col. Campbell, 3d Guards, wounded.
Major Donkin, 44th Foot, wounded,
Capt. Walker, Royal Artillery, wounded,
And near 60 rank and file killed & wounded.

HENRY WARDE.
Capt. and Lieut. Col. 1st Guards

LONDON, May 18.

"Money! Money! Money!"

Mr. Beckford has just returned from France, charged with an errand to our Ministry, from the Executive Directory; containing a proposition, that the British Government should put 50 mill. into the private pocket of the Executive Directory, which it was insinuated might dispose them to turn a favourable ear to our proposals of peace. The overture was of course rejected, with that scorn which all virtuous men must feel, at the developement of such unexampled baseness and venality.

Jean Bon St. Andre has not been decapitated at Algiers—He is gone to Smyrna.

A forced loan has been imposed throughout the Roman Republic. Those who refused for 15 days are to be shot.

Yesterday at the Council Board, the King, with his hand, drew a pen across the name of the Right Hon. Charles James Fox, on the list of Privy Counsellors!

ST. MARCOU.

Fifty French gun vessels, with 5000 troops made a vigorous attack on the little island of Marcou, on the coast of Normandy; but they met so warm a reception, that they were forced to retire to Havre with the loss of six gun boats; and three hundred men. The heroic Englishmen were principally invalids, and lost but very few men.

LORD EDWARD FITZGERALD.

This nobleman, who is brother to the Duke of Leinster, has greatly excited the public curiosity. On the 12th May, the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, after a strict examination proclaimed him as guilty of High Treason, and offered one thousand pounds sterling reward for his apprehension. The following account of his arrest must therefore be highly interesting.

"Information having been received that Lord Edward Fitzgerald was concealed in the house of Mr. Murphy, a feather merchant, in Thomas'-street, Mr. Justice Swan, Major Sirr, and Capt. Ryan, went there between the hours of six and seven o'clock on Saturday evening last, with a party of soldiers in two carriages.

"Whilst Major Sirr and Capt. Ryan, were placing the guard, to prevent an escape, Mr. Swan got in to a small outer office, and from thence into the lower part of the house, and went up stairs, where meeting a woman, he pushed her down, and got into a room on the first floor, where he found a decanter with the remains of some wine, and some glasses on the table, with chairs round it; meeting no person there, he rushed into a back room, two stories high, where he found Murphy, the owner of the house, standing in the room, Lord Edward lying in the bed, with his coat off, and his breeches and stockings on. Mr. Swan informed his Lordship, he had a warrant against him for High Treason, was sorry for his situation, but he should receive from him every polite treatment suitable to his rank. His Lordship immediately rose up in the bed, darted at him, and he, Mr. Swan, hearing something, as if a pistol was snapped at him, saw Lord Edward snatch a dagger from under the clothes, with which he made several stabs at him, which passed through his cloaths without wounding him.

"His Lordship then closed upon Mr. Swan, shortened the dagger, and gave him a stab in the side, under the left breast, having first changed it from one hand to the other over his shoulder (as Mr. Swan thinks, although severely wounded, he was unwilling to take his Lordship's life, and desired him frequently to surrender, and endeavoured to arrest the dagger from him, and in the scuffle his Lordship made many violent attempts to repeat his blows; finding the blood running from him and the impossibility to restrain him, he was compelled, in defence of his own life, to discharge a double barreled pistol at his Lordship and wounded him in the shoulder; he fell on the bed, but recovering himself, ran at him with the dagger, which Mr. Swan caught by the blade with one hand, and endeavoured to trip him up; Capt. Ryan, directly by the report of the pistol, ran up into the room, and found Mr. Swan bleeding, and entangled with Lord Edward; Mr. Swan said to Mr. Ryan "he has murdered me," on which Ryan threw himself towards Lord Edward and Swan, and was then stabbed by his Lordship. On Capt. Ryan's approach, Lord Edward, made a strong effort, and forced the dagger from Mr. Swan and rushing on Ryan, gave him a desperate wound in the belly, and several other places.

"Major Sirr then came up, and seeing Lord Edward entangled with Mr. Swan, made at Lord Edward. The soldiers then came up, and would have instantly put his Lordship to death, if they had not been restrained.—Here Lord Edward was surrounded an di

For the NEWPORT MERCURY.

ALIEN AND SEDITION BILLS.

THE Alien Bill provides, that it shall be lawful for the President "to order all such aliens as he shall judge dangerous to the peace and safety of the United States, or shall have reasonable grounds to suspect are concerned in any treasonable or secret machinations against the government thereof, to depart out of the United States in such time as shall be expressed in such order."

While this Bill was under discussion, Mr. Livingston, of New York, opposed it in the House of Representatives on the ground of its unconstitutionality.—In one of the most virulent and inflammatory speeches ever delivered in a deliberative assembly, he took occasion to say, that "the People ought not to submit to this measure they would deserve the chains forging for them if they did not resist." "They will resist," he again says, "this tyranical system the people will oppose, they ought not to acquiesce, and I pray to God they never may." Infamous as it was to utter such language, it is almost criminal to repeat it—Yet this Speech has been printed and reprinted in all the papers of the French faction.

A writer in the New York Daily Advertiser has condescended to answer and refute this extraordinary speech—The weakness of its reasoning and the atrocity of its design are exposed in such a manner as must make Treason itself recoil with conscious imbecility and guilt—he establishes in the fullest manner the political expediency of the measure, and the constitutional power of Congress.

The most important, and almost the only question which can arise in the discussion of this Bill, is, whether a nation has a right to remove aliens at its pleasure, and on this question a single authority from the Laws (quoted by the writer above mentioned) will be sufficient—Vattel (b. 1. ch. 19) says, "Every nation has a proper and exclusive right to the country of its settlement, and it has a right of refusing to admit a stranger into the country, when it cannot be done without putting it in imminent danger, or without doing it a remarkable prejudice—what it owes to itself, the care of its own safety, gives it this right and in virtue of its natural liberty the nation is to judge whether it is or is not in a proper situation to receive a stranger.—He cannot settle by a full right, but must ask permission of the superior of the place, and if it is refused it is his place to submit"—Again (b. 2. ch. 10) "If particular and solid reasons hinder its giving him an asylum, this man has no longer any right to demand it; because in such a case, the country inhabited by the nation, cannot at the same time serve for its own use, and that of this stranger. Thus a nation whose lands are scarcely sufficient to supply the wants of the citizens, is not obliged to receive a company of fugitives or exiles—Therefore it ought absolutely to eject them as much as if they were infected by a contagious disease.—Thus it has a right to send them elsewhere, if it has just cause to fear that they will corrupt the manners of the citizens; create religious disturbances, or occasion some other disorder contrary to the public safety."

The right of a nation to remove aliens at its pleasure being established, the manner of exercising this right must of course be prescribed by the nation within itself, and while the Supreme Legislature of our Country is in the act of prescribing the manner in which this right shall be exercised, they are told by one of their body, that the People will and ought to resist the execution of the Law which they are enacting.

It has also been said, that the Sedition Bill is an infringement of that Amendment to the Constitution, which says, that "Congress shall make no Law abridging the freedom of speech or of the Press"—Sedition always has been and now is, A CRIME by the Laws of all nations—and shall it be said, that a Law for defining and punishing an infamous crime, is a Law abridging the freedom of speech or the press?—to arrive at this conclusion we must prove that freedom of speech or of the press is a CRIME, and that the Constitution meant to protect crimes from punishment.—It has been doubted whether offences at common Law were cognizable in the Courts of the United States, without an express Law of the United States for defining and punishing such offences. If the Courts of the United States have no jurisdiction, such offences must be tried in the State Courts and punished by a diversity of Laws, in some more, in others, less severe.—If seditious practices were carried on in a State unfriendly to the Government of the United States, they would, perhaps, entirely escape punishment: If in a State warmly attached to the Government, they might be punished too severely—It therefore becomes necessary to establish an uniform definition of the crime, and to enact an uniform punishment.—This has been done by Congress, and the punishment they have enacted is far milder than it stood before at common Law.

The crime of Sedition is almost exclusively confined to populous cities, and the experience of all nations has proved, that in every great crisis of public affairs, the inhabitants of populous cities are liable to divisions, and that all the energies of Government are necessary to curb the licentiousness of desperate and factious characters—This fact has been forcibly illustrated in the whole course of the French Revolution—a factious minority of desperate and bloody assassins, in the city of Paris, has in almost every instance dictated Laws to the whole French Empire, by intimidating and controuling the Legislative Body, while the great body of well disposed citizens, the mechanic, the farmer, and the merchant, scattered over an extensive territory, were successively the spectators and the victims of this execrable tyranny.

The well disposed Citizens of America, the Landholders in particular, ought to be on their guard against this evil—they must give Confidence to the Government and Energy to the Laws, to preserve their own due Weight and Influence—they must aid in suppressing seditious practices, or our Government, like that of France, will become the dupe of a bloody faction.

SEDITION ACT.

An ACT in addition to an Act entitled "An Act for the punishment of certain crimes against the United States."

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That if any persons shall unlawfully combine or conspire together with intent to oppose any measure or measures of the government of the United States, which are or shall be directed by proper authority, or to impede the operation of any law of the United States, or to intimidate or prevent any person holding a place or office in or under the government of the United States, from undertaking, performing or executing his trust or duty; and if any person or persons as aforesaid, shall counsel, advise or attempt to procure any insurrection, riot, unlawful assembly or combination, whether such conspiracy, threatening, counsel, advice or attempt shall have the proposed effect or not, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction, before any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment during a term not less than six months nor exceeding five years; and further, at the discretion of the court, may be holden to find sureties for the good behaviour, in such sum and for such time, as the said court may direct.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall write, print, utter or publish, or shall cause or procure to be written, printed, uttered, or published, or shall knowingly and willingly assist or aid in writing, printing, uttering, or publishing any false, scandalous and malicious writing or writings against the government of the United States, or either House of the Congress of the United States, or the President of the United States, with intent to defame the said government, or either House of the said Congress, or the said President, or to bring them or either of them into contempt or disrepute—or to excite against them, or any of them, the hatred of the good people of the United States, or to stir up sedition within the United States, or to excite any unlawful combinations therein, for opposing or resisting any law of the United States, or any act of the President of the United States, done in pursuance of any such law, or of the powers in him vested by the constitution of the United States, or to resist, oppose, or defeat any such law or act, or aid, encourage or abet any hostile designs of any foreign nation against the United States, their people or government, then such person, being thereof convicted before any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, and by imprisonment not exceeding two years.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall be prosecuted under this act, for the writing or publishing any libel aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the defendant, upon the trial of the cause, to give in evidence in his defence, the truth of the matter contained in the publication charged as a libel. And the jury who shall try the cause, shall have a right to determine the law and the fact, under the direction of the court as in other cases.

Sect 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall continue and be in force until the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and one, and no longer: Provided, that the expiration of the act shall not prevent or defeat a prosecution and punishment of any offence against the law, during the time it shall be in force.

Foreign Intelligence.

By the Venilia, Bates, arrived at Boston, in 53 Days from Liverpool:

VIENNA, May 2.

THE Baron Thugut, Minister for Foreign Affairs, has been dismissed, at his own request; and appointed as General Commissary of our new possessions on the Adriatic.—[It will be recollected, however, that the French Ambassador demanded the displacement of Thugut.

The reports of the recommencement of the war increase. New troops are raising.

Bernadotte has set off from Rastadt for Paris

FRANKFORT, May 5.

A large body of French troops is assembling near Dusseldorff, from Belgium, &c. The expedition against England, it is thought, will be deferred until peace is concluded with the Empire.

The Austrian army in the Tyrol is to be reinforced with 6000 men.

RASTADT, May 5.

The Deputation of the Empire has received the long expected answer of the French Minister. It contains the most extravagant demands of cessions on the Rhine.—Demands which we think will be refused with disdain.

The prospect now is more warlike than pacific; and preparations are making for the Arch Duke Charles, Gen. Mack, the Prince of Furstenburg, and Gen. De Vins, to take the field, as separate commanders, on the Rhine, in the Tyrol, and in Italy.

Letters from Turin, confirm the advantages gained by the royal troops over the Piedmontese Insurgents, near Lake Major.

The Batavian Minister has not yet been recognized at Vienna!

Official Account of the Affair at Ostend.

[We have received, by the Venilia, a hand bill dated May 24, with an official account of the issue of the English expedition against Ostend.—It is given in several letters which, of necessity, occasions many repetitions.—The following contains every important fact. It may be necessary however to observe, that the Bruges Canal was the grand vein of the inland navigation between Holland, Flanders and France; and its destruction was conceived an object of such importance, that Major General Coote, who commanded the troops on the expedition, observed, that if the surf should prevent the retreat of his men, the success of the enterprize would be a full compensation. The whole number of vessels engaged in the undertaking were 21, large and small, principally gun boats. Three seamen were killed and fifteen wounded. The number of soldiers made prisoners, private accounts compute at 1300—there is no official statement.]

LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

Parliament street, May 22, '98.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received by the Rt. Hon. H. Dundas, from Lieut. Col. Warde, of the 1st Reg. of Guards, dated on board the Expedition frigate, eight o'clock, P. M. May 20, 1798.

SIR,

IN consequence of the Minerva frigate (on board of which were the four light infantry companies of the 1st regiment of Foot Guards) having unfortunately left her situation in the squadron under the command of Capt. Popham, of the Royal Navy, during the night of the 18th inst. the command of the remainder of the troops, from that accident, has devolved upon me; and I have the honor to transmit you the most correct account that I have been able to collect.

Early in the morning of the 19th inst. the following troops, under the command of Major General Coote, viz.

Two companies, light infantry, Coldstream Guards,
Two ditto, ditto, 3d Guards,
11th Regiment of foot,
23d and 49 flank companies,

with six pieces of ordnance, disembarked, and effected their landing, at 3 o'clock, in the morning, to the eastward of Ostend, and completed the object of the expedition, by burning a number of boats destined for the invasion of England, and by so completely destroying the Locks and Bason Gates of the Bruges Canal, that it was this morning without a drop of water; and as I understand all the transports fitting out at Flushing were intended to be brought to Ostend and Dunkirk by the inland navigation, to avoid our cruizers, that arrangement will be defeated, and it will be a long time before the works can be repaired, as they were five years finishing, and were esteemed the most complete works of the kind in Europe. The troops had retreated, and were ready to re embark by twelve o'clock, the same morning, with the loss of only one rank and file killed, and one seaman wounded, but found it impossible from the wind having encreased, and the surf running so high as entirely to prevent their regaining the boats, upon which they took up a position on the Sand Hills above the beach, where they lay the whole of that day and night upon their arms. The enemy taking advantage of the length of time and the night, collected in very great force, and soon after day break this morning, attacked them, on every side, when, after a most noble and gallant defence, I am grieved to add, they were under the necessity of capitulating, to a great superiority of numbers.

I herewith inclose a list of the killed and wounded, and I have every reason to believe it correct.

Lieut. Col. Hely, 11th Foot, killed,
Major Gen. Coote, wounded,
Col. Campbell, 3d Guards, wounded.
Major Donkin, 44th Foot, wounded,
Capt. Walker, Royal Artillery, wounded,
And near 60 rank and file killed & wounded.

HENRY WARDE,
Capt. and Lieut. Col. 1st Guards

LONDON, May 18.

"Money! Money! Money!"

Mr. Beckford has just returned from France, charged with an errand to our Ministry, from the Executive Directory; containing a proposition, that the British Government should put 50 000l. into the private pocket of the Executive Directory, which it was insinuated might dispose them to turn a favourable ear to our proposals of peace. The overture was of course rejected, with that scorn which all virtuous men must feel, at the developement of such unexampled baseness and venality.

Jean Bon St. Andre has not been decapitated at Algiers—He is gone to Smyrna.

A forced loan has been imposed throughout the Roman Republic. Those who refused for 15 days are to be shot.

Yesterday at the Council Board, the King, with his hand, drew a pen across the name of the Right Hon. Charles James Fox, on the list of Privy Counsellors!

ST. MARCOU.

Fifty French gun vessels, with 5000 troops made a vigorous attack on the little island of Marcou, on the coast of Normandy; but they met so warm a reception, that they were forced to retire to Havre with the loss of six gun boats; and three hundred men. The heroic Englishmen were principally invalids, and lost but very few men.

LORD EDWARD FITZGERALD.

This nobleman, who is brother to the Duke of Leinster, has greatly excited the public curiosity. On the 11th May, the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, after a strict examination proclaimed him as guilty of High Treason, and offered one thousand pounds sterling reward for his apprehension. The following account of his arrest must therefore be highly interesting.

"Information having been received that Lord Edward Fitzgerald was concealed in the house of Mr. Murphy, a feather merchant, in Thomas'-street, Mr. Justice Swan, Major Sirr, and Capt. Ryan, went there between the hours of six and seven o'clock on Saturday evening last, with a party of soldiers in two carriages.

"Whilst Major Sirr and Capt. Ryan, were placing the guard, to prevent an escape, Mr. Swan got in to a small outer office, and from thence into the lower part of the house, and went up stairs, where meeting a woman, he pushed her down, and got into a room on the first floor, where he found a decanter with the remains of some wine, and some glasses on the table, with chairs round it; meeting no person there, he rushed into a back room, two stories high, where he found Murphy, the owner of the house, standing in the room, Lord Edward lying in the bed, with his coat off, and his breeches and stockings on. Mr. Swan informed his Lordship, he had a warrant against him for High Treason, was sorry for his situation, but he should receive from him every polite treatment suitable to his rank. His Lordship immediately rose up in the bed, darted at him, and he, Mr. Swan, hearing something, as if a pistol was snapped at him, saw Lord Edward snatch a dagger from under the clothes, with which he made several stabs at him, which passed through his cloaths without wounding him.

"His Lordship then closed upon Mr. Swan, shortened the dagger, and gave him a stab in the side, under the left breast, having first changed it from one hand to the other over his shoulder (as Mr. Swan thinks, although severely wounded, he was unwilling to take his Lordship's life, and defied him frequently to surrender, and endeavoured to arrest the dagger from him, and in the scuffle his Lordship made many violent attempts to repeat his blow; finding the blood running from him and the impossibility to restrain him, he was compelled, in defence of his own life, to discharge a double barreled pistol at his Lordship and wounded him in the shoulder; he fell on the bed, but recovering himself, ran at him with the dagger, which Mr. Swan caught by the blade with one hand, and endeavoured to trip him up; Capt. Ryan, directly by the report of the pistol, ran up into the room, and found Mr. Swan bleeding, and entangled with Lord Edward; Mr. Swan said to Mr. Ryan, "he has murdered me," on which Ryan threw himself towards Lord Edward and Swan, and was then stabbed by his Lordship. On Capt. Ryan's approach, Lord Edward, made a strong effort, and forced the dagger from Mr. Swan, and rushing on Ryan, gave him a desperate wound in the belly, and several other places.

"Major Sirr then came up, and seeing Lord Edward entangled with Mr. Swan, made at Lord Edward. The soldiers then came up, and would have instantly put his Lordship to death, if they had not been restrained.—Here Lord Edward was surrounded an disarmed, and brought prisoner to the castle. Capt. Ryan was so badly wounded, he was obliged to remain in the house for some time, from whence he was removed to the house of Mr. Lawrence Tigh, of Thomas street, where he remains dangerously ill. Mr. Swan, after depositing his prisoner in the castle, was carried to his house, having refused to have his wounds dressed until the surgeons had first attended Lord Edward.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.

Highly Interesting!

SENATE of the UNITED STATES.
JULY 18, 1798.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

BELIEVING that the letter received this morning from General WASHINGTON will give high satisfaction to the Senate, I transmit them a copy of it, and congratulate them and the public on this great event, the General's acceptance of his appointment, as Lieutenant-General and Commander in Chief of the Army.

JOHN ADAMS.

Mount Vernon, 13th July, 1798.

DEAR SIR,

I HAD the honor on the evening of the 9th instant, to receive from the hand of the Secretary of War, your favour of the 7th, announcing that you had, with the advice and consent of the Senate, appointed me "Lieutenant General and Commander in Chief of all the Armies raised or to be raised for the service of the United States."

I cannot express how greatly afflicted I am at this new proof of public confidence, and the highly flattering manner in which you have been pleased to make the communication; at the same time I must not conceal from you my earnest wish, that the choice had fallen upon a man less declined in years, and better qualified to encounter the usual vicissitudes of war.

You know, Sir, what calculation I have made relative to the probable course of events, on my retiring from office, and the determination I had consoled myself with, of closing the remnant of my days in my present peaceful abode; you will therefore be at no loss to conceive and appreciate the sensations I must have experienced, to bring my mind to any conclusion that would pledge me, at so late a period of life, to leave scenes I sincerely love, to enter upon the boundless field of public action, incessant trouble, and high responsibility.

It was not possible for me to remain ignorant of, or indifferent to, recent transactions. The conduct of the Directory of France towards our country—their insidious hostility to its government—their various practices to withdraw the affections of the people from it—the evident tendency of their agents, to countenance and invigorate opposition—their disregard of solemn treaties and the laws of nations—their war upon our defenceless commerce—their treatment of our ministers of peace, and their demands, amounting to tribute, could not fail to excite in me, corresponding sentiments with those my countrymen have so generally expressed in their affectionate addresses to you. Believe me, Sir, no one can more cordially approve of the wise and prudent measures of your administration. They ought to inspire universal confidence, and will, no doubt, combined with the state of things, call from Congress such laws and means as will enable you to meet the full force and extent of the crisis.

Satisfied, therefore, that you have sincerely wished and endeavoured to avert war, and exhausted, to the last drop, the cup of reconciliation, we can with pure hearts appeal to Heaven for the justice of our cause; and may confidently trust the final result to that kind Providence who has heretofore, and so often signally favoured the people of these United States.

Thinking in this manner, and seeing how incumbent it is upon every person of every description, to contribute at all times to his country's welfare, and especially in a moment like the present, when every thing we hold dear and sacred is so seriously threatened; I have finally determined to accept the commission of Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United States; with the reserve only, that I shall not be called into the field until the army is in a situation to require my presence, or it becomes indispensible by the urgency of circumstances.

In making this reservation, I beg it to be understood, that I do not mean to withhold any assistance to arrange and organize the army, which you may think I can afford. I take the liberty also to mention, that I must decline having my acceptance considered as drawing after it any immediate charge upon the public; or that I can receive any emoluments annexed to the appointment, before entering into a situation to incur expense.

The Secretary of War being anxious to return to the Seat of Government, I have detained him no longer than was necessary to a full communication upon the several points he had in charge.

With very great respect and consideration,
I have the honor to be,
Dear Sir,
Your most obedient humble Servant,
G. WASHINGTON.

JOHN ADAMS,
President of the United States.

NEW YORK, July 19.

A letter from Jeremie informs that the British have taken Tiburon, Plymouth and one other post and were full march for Aux Cayes.

BOSTON, July 19.

COMMENCEMENT.

The anniversary Commencement of Harvard University, was celebrated yesterday at Cambridge, with unusual spirit and festivity.—The exercises, which were judiciously cast, and ably supported, were received with the warmest tokens of approbation; particularly the part which Mr. Joseph Tuckerman sustained in the English Conference upon Logic, &c. the English Poem, on Reason, by Mr. Joseph Story, and the Oration on the present age, by Mr. William E. Channing. These parts, and indeed the whole performances of the day, were marked by that true spirit of federalism, which so eminently distinguishes the American character at this day. The escort of the Horse, commanded by Capt. Amory, added much to the splendour of a scene, rendered annually dear to every lover of science and literature.

After dinner in the Hall, at which were present the Officers of the University, the Governor and Escort, the Clergy, and a large number of strangers of distinction, Mr. Paine's Song of "Adams and Liberty"—and "Hail Columbia" were sung by Col. Fay, and Mr. Hodgkinson at the particular request of the company, with that enrapturing applause which their sentiments will always create, and which such spirited execution so naturally inspired.

July 21.

Yesterday the Frigate United States of 44 guns, Commodore Barry, and the Delaware sloop of war, of 16 guns, Capt. Decatur, anchored in the lower harbour.

The Constitution had her foretopsail loose all day yesterday. She will sail, we think, this day, with her consorts.

NEWPORT, July 24.

On Monday the 16th Inst. the Congress of the United States closed the longest and most important Session since the Establishment of the Federal Government, and adjourned, to meet again on the first Monday of December next. In this active and labourious Session they have passed 85 Acts—By these multiplied Evidences of their Attention to the public Interest, they have with the Spirit, and in the Words of the Constitution, "insured domestic "Tranquillity, provided for the common "Defence, promoted the general Welfare, "and secured the Blessings of Liberty to us "and our Posterity."

On Thursday last arrived in Town from Philadelphia, the Hon. CHRISTOPHER G. CHAMPLIN, and THOMAS TILLINGHAST, Esquires, Representatives in Congress from this State; on Sunday the Hon. JOHN RUTLEDGE, jun. Representative in Congress from the State of South Carolina; and Yesterday Morning, the Hon. RAY GREENE and THEODORE FOSTER, Esquires, Senators from this State.

The following is a List of Appointments for the Army of Twelve Thousand, Men which is to be organized immediately:

ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Inspector General, with the Rank of Major General.

Major Generals.

CHARLES COTESWORTH PINCKNEY,
HENRY KNOX.

Brigadier Generals.

JOHN BROOKS, of Massachusetts,
WILLIAM WASHINGTON, of S. Carolina.
JONATHAN DAYTON, of New Jersey.
WILLIAM NORTH, of New York, Adjutant General, with the Rank of Brigadier General.
JAMES CRAIK, of Virginia, Physician General of the Army.

The following are the Officers of the Provisional Army of Ten Thousand, which is not to be raised until actual Danger of an Invasion shall be deemed to exist.

Major Generals.

HENRY LEE, of Virginia,
EDWARD HAND of Pennsylvania.

Brigadier Generals.

EBENEZER HUNTINGTON, of Connecticut.
ANTHONY W WHITE, of New Jersey.
WILLIAM RICHARDSON DAVIE, of N. C.
JOHN SEVIER, of Tennessee.

WILLIAM WYNDER, Esq; of Maryland, is appointed Accountant of the Department of the Navy.

We are informed, that a Battery of 9 or 12 Guns is to be erected on Brenton's Point, and another on Dyer's Point—A permanent One is proposed to be erected on Tammany Hill, of a superior Construction.—It is proposed to build the two first immediately.

The President, by a Proclamation, dated the 23th Instant, has revoked the Exequatur of the Consuls of the French Republic here, viz. of Citizens Letombe, Rozier, Arcambal, and Mozard.

"THE MAN WHOM THE" BOYS "DELIGHT TO HONOR"

The celebrated Matthew Lyon, on his Return from Congress through the State of New-Jersey, was honored with uncommon Marks of Attention by the Federal Boys, of Trenton and Brunswick. They gathered round him with a Curiosity and Eagerness that is generally discovered to obtain a Sight of any other strange Animal, and escorted him to a considerable Distance, playing the Rogue's March.

CINCINNATI.

The Society of Cincinnati, for the State of Rhode Island, at their Anniversary Meeting on the 4th of July, unanimously voted the following Address:

To the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.

SIR,

THE State Society of Cincinnati of Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations, assembled to celebrate the Birth Day of our national Independence, beg Leave respectfully to address you, on the present momentous Crisis of our public Affairs; we have viewed the Progress of your Administration, with that Solicitude and Anxiety which becomes free Citizens, who know how to appreciate the Blessings of Liberty—And it is with extreme Regret, that we have observed the Attempts of certain profligate and designing Men to weaken the Bond of national Union, and diminish the Respect due to the Laws, the Constitution, and the Magistracy—But we are relieved from our Apprehensions by a clear Conviction, that the firm, patriotic and enlightened Policy pursued by the Chief Magistrate of the United States, supported by a great and respectable Majority of our Fellow-Citizens, will not only protect our Country from national Insult and Degradation—but place her on that Point of Elevation to which she is entitled by her Courage, her Virtues, and successful Struggle in the Cause of Freedom. With a Sincerity void of Duplicity, we assure you of our entire Approbation of all the Measures you have pursued to preserve the Peace of our Country, and it is with Indignation we have witnessed every Attempt to obtain an End so detestable to Humanity, and the Repose of Nations treated with Insolence and Contempt by a foreign Power, whose insidious Professions induced us to expect tranquillity, while her Conduct bade us arm to support our Sovereignty and Independence, or tamely submit to be governed by "Diplomatic Skill" and foreign Influence—We are determined to live and die free—And we are ready once more to rally round the Standard of our Country headed by that Illustrious Chief who at a Time that proved the Patriot and Hero led us to Victory and Independence.—Every Sacrifice which the future Circumstances of our Country may require, under whatever Leader, we shall consider as Nothing, when put in Competition with the Rights of a free, sovereign and independent Nation—and we hope and trust by the Blessing of Heaven, and the Wisdom of our Executive, aided by the Councils of the United States and the generous Efforts of her Sons, that we shall be able to repel all foreign Aggression, and transmit unimpaired the fair Inheritance to our latest Posterity.

ISAAC SENTER, President.

Attest.

ROBERT ROGERS Secretary.

Newport, 4th July, 1798.

To the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for your respectful Remembrance of me on the Birth Day of our United States—the clear Conviction you acknowledge of the firm, patriotic and enlightened Policy, pursued by the Chief Magistrate of the United States, after a Review of the Progress of his Administration, will encourage his Heart, and strengthen his Hands—Our Country, supported by a great and respectable Majority of its Inhabitants, will not only be protected from a degrading Submission to national Insults, but be placed, I trust, on that point of Elevation, where by her Courage and Virtues, she is entitled to stand. The best "Diplomatic Skill" that I know of, is honesty, and whenever the Nation we complain of, shall have Recourse to that, she may depend upon an Opportunity to boast of the Success of her Address—till then she will employ her Finesse in vain. On the Day you resolved to live and die free—and declared yourselves ready to rally round the Standard of your Country, headed by that illustrious Chief who at a Time that proved the Patriot and the Hero, led you to Victory—I was employed in the best of Measures in my Power, to obtain a Gratification of your Wishes—which I am not without Hopes may prove successful—In a Country like ours, every Sacrifice ought to be considered as Nothing—when put in Competition, with the Rights of a free and sovereign Nation, and I trust, that by the Blessing of Heaven and the Valor of our Citizens, under their ancient and glorious Leader, you will be able to transmit your fairest Inheritance to Posterity.

JOHN ADAMS.

Philadelphia, July 12th, 1798.

The Volunteer drank at the Meeting of Dunlap's Troop, Philadelphia, was

"The Fair Sex—The only human Beings to whom we will ever bend the Knee."

Amount of Flour inspected at Alexandria, for the last Three Months, ending the 30th of June—26,456 Whole, and 1,621 Half Barrels.

DIED]—In London, aged 31, Mr. WILLIAM JENKINS, a Clerk in the Bank. This Gentleman measured the extraordinary Height of 7 Feet 9 Inches.

—In Boston, THOMAS FRASER, Esq; of London, long a very eminent Merchant of that City, aged 65.

—At Providence, on Wednesday last, in the 51st Year of her Age, Mrs. LYDIA FOSTER, Consort of the Hon. Theodore Foster, Esq; and Sister to his Excellency the Governor.

—In this Town, Miss ELIZABETH BAILEY, in the 77th Year of her Age.

CUSTOM-HOUSE,
District of Newport, July 23.

ENTERED,

Schooner Peggy, Irish,	Trenchman's Bay
Sloop George Brown,	New York
—— Two Brothers, Brown,	Virginia
—— Aurora, Cahoone,	New York
—— Eagle, Earl,	Ditto
—— Friendship, Benthall,	Turks Island

CLEARED,

Schooner Polly Lunt,	For Boston
Sloop Eliza, Peterson,	New York
—— Concord, Cahoone,	Ditto
—— Weasel, Miller,	Ditto
Schooner Curziah, Barker,	Charleston
Sloop Leopard Farnum	Providence
—— Quick Times, Cleaveland,	New York
—— Friendship, Bliss,	Ditto
—— Nancy, Burr	Norfolk

TO BE SOLD, BY
William Douglass,
At his Shop, in Broadway—very cheap for CASH.

ABOUT 600 ready made SHIRTS and SHEETS (Linen and Muslin.

50 Wt. of the best Essence of Spruce.

Also, a general and good Assortment of West India Goods.

Newport, 24th July, 1798.

TO BE SOLD,
A DWELLING-HOUSE, and Lot of Land with a Stable thereon, about 57 Feet Front, and 54 back, late belonging to the Estate of Edith Gibbs, situate and adjoining Northward to the House and Lot now occupied by William Ellery, Esq—Any Person inclining to purchase, may know the Terms by applying to the Subscriber, who will give an indisputable Title to the same.

S. WATSON.

Newport, July 23 1798.

Elegant Vessel for Sale.

FOR SALE the fine New Packet POMONA, Burthen 72 Tons, in compleat Order for Sea—Her Character as a staunch fast sailing Vessel is so well established, that she needs no other Recommendation but to be seen. For Particulars inquire of

PHILIP ROBINSON.

Newport, 24th 7th Month 1798.

House & Gardens for Sale.

The Subscriber will sell the HOUSE wherein he now Dwells with the LOTS thereto belonging, and the FURNITURE of the same.

CHRIST. ELLERY.

Newport, July 2, 1798.

For Sale, by
THOMAS HANDY,
At the Sugar House lately improved by Messieurs OVERING & AUCHMUTY,
Single and double-refined,
and Lump Sugar, by the Quantity, or single Loaf.—Also, MOLASSES of a superior Quality, for retailing.

New Goods.

John Bours, jun.
Respectfully informs his Friends and the Public in general, That he has just received, at his Store, directly opposite Gen. Martin's,

A Beautiful Assortment of the most fashionable DRY GOODS, which he is determined to sell very low.

J. B. jun. returns his Thanks to his Customers, and requests a Continuance of their Favours.

Newport, May 28, 1798.

Stephen Pierce
HAS FOR SALE,
BUNTING and ready made COLOURS. Also, an Assortment of neat GUN LOCKS and BRASS FURNITURE, POWDER and SHOT; a few Bags of ANNISEED, a Quantity of excellent MUSTARD in Bottles, a small Assortment of GLASS WARE of superior Quality, and an Assortment of CROCKERY WARE.

Twenty Barrels of ROZIN.

A Quantity of excellent Spanish SEGARS.

armed, and brought prisoner to the castle. Capt. Ryan was so badly wounded, he was obliged to remain in the house for some time, from whence he was removed to the house of Mr. Lawrence Tigh, of Thomas street, where he remains dangerously ill. Mr. Swan, after depositing his prisoner in the castle, was carried to his house, having refused to have his wounds dressed until the surgeons had first attended Lord Edward.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.

Highly Interesting!

SENATE of the UNITED STATES.
JULY 18, 1798.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

BELIEVING that the letter received this morning from General WASHINGTON will give high satisfaction to the Senate, I transmit them a copy of it, and congratulate them and the public on this great event, the General's acceptance of his appointment, as Lieutenant-General and Commander in Chief of the Army.

JOHN ADAMS.

Mount Vernon, 13th July, 1798.

DEAR SIR,

I HAD the honor on the evening of the 12th instant, to receive from the hand of the Secretary of War, your favour of the 7th, announcing that you had, with the advice and consent of the Senate, appointed me "Lieutenant General and Commander in Chief of all the Armies raised or to be raised for the service of the United States."

I cannot express how greatly affected I am at this new proof of public confidence, and the highly flattering manner in which you have been pleased to make the communication; at the same time I must not conceal from you my earnest wish, that the choice had fallen upon a man less declined in years, and better qualified to encounter the usual vicissitudes of war.

You know, Sir, what calculation I have made relative to the probable course of events, on my retiring from office, and the determination I had consoled myself with, of closing the remnant of my days in my present peaceful abode; you will therefore be at no loss to conceive and appreciate the sensations I must have experienced, to bring my mind to any conclusion that would pledge me, at so late a period of life, to leave scenes I sincerely love, to enter upon the boundless field of public action, incessant trouble, and high responsibility.

It was not possible for me to remain ignorant of, or indifferent to, recent transactions. The conduct of the Directory of France towards our country—their insidious hostility to its government—their various practices to withdraw the affections of the people from it—the evident tendency of their agents, to countenance and invigorate opposition—their disregard of solemn treaties and the laws of nations—their war upon our defenceless commerce—their treatment of our ministers of peace, and their demands, amounting to tribute, could not fail to excite in me, corresponding sentiments with those my countrymen have so generally expressed in their affectionate addresses to you. Believe me, Sir, no one can more cordially approve of the wise and prudent measures of your administration. They ought to inspire universal confidence, and will, no doubt, combined with the state of things, call from Congress such laws and means as will enable you to meet the full force and extent of the crisis.

Satisfied, therefore, that you have sincerely wished and endeavoured to avert war, and exhausted, to the last drop, the cup of reconciliation, we can with pure hearts appeal to Heaven for the justice of our cause; and may confidently trust the final result to that kind Providence who has heretofore, and so often signally favoured the people of these United States.

Thinking in this manner, and seeing how incumbent it is upon every person of every description, to contribute at all times to his country's welfare, and especially in a moment like the present, when every thing we hold dear and sacred is so seriously threatened; I have finally determined to accept the commission of Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United States; with the reserve only, that I shall not be called into the field until the army is in a situation to require my presence, or it becomes indispensible by the urgency of circumstances.

In making this reservation, I beg it to be understood, that I do not mean to withhold any assistance to arrange and organize the army, which you may think I can afford. I take the liberty also to mention, that I must decline having my acceptance considered as drawing after it any immediate charge upon the public; or that I can receive any emoluments annexed to the appointment, before entering into a situation to incur expense.

The Secretary of War being anxious to return to the Seat of Government, I have detained him no longer than was necessary to a full communication upon the several points he had in charge.

With very great respect and consideration,
I have the honor to be,
Dear Sir,
Your most obedient humble Servant,
G. WASHINGTON.

JOHN ADAMS,
President of the United States.

NEW YORK, July 19.

A letter from Jeremie informs that the British have taken Tiburon, Plymouth and one other post and were full march for Aux Cayes.

BOSTON, July 19.

COMMENCEMENT.

The anniversary Commencement of Harvard University, was celebrated yesterday at Cambridge, with unusual spirit and festivity.—The exercises, which were judiciously cast, and ably supported, were received with the warmest tokens of approbation; particularly the part which Mr. Joseph Tuckerman sustained in the English Conference upon Logic, &c. the English Poem, on Reason, by Mr. Joseph Story, and the Oration on the present age, by Mr. William E. Channing. These parts, and indeed the whole performances of the day, were marked by that true spirit of federalism, which so eminently distinguishes the American character at this day. The escort of the Horse, commanded by Capt. Amory, added much to the splendour of a scene, rendered annually dear to every lover of science and literature.

After dinner in the Hall, at which were present the Officers of the University, the Governor and Escort, the Clergy, and a large number of strangers of distinction, Mr. Paine's Song of "Adams and Liberty"—and "Hail Columbia" were sung by Col. Fay, and Mr. Hodgkinson at the particular request of the company, with that enrapturing applause which their sentiments will always create, and which such spirited execution so naturally inspired.

July 21.

Yesterday the Frigate United States of 44 guns, Commodore Barry, and the Delaware sloop of war, of 16 guns, Capt. Decatur, anchored in the lower harbour.

The Constitution had her foretopsail loose all day yesterday. She will sail, we think, this day, with her consorts.

NEWPORT, July 24.

On Monday the 16th Inst. the Congress of the United States closed the longest and most important Session since the Establishment of the Federal Government, and adjourned, to meet again on the first Monday of December next. In this active and labourious Session they have passed 85 Acts—By these multiplied Evidences of their Attention to the public Interest, they have with the Spirit, and in the Words of the Constitution, "insured domestic "Tranquility, provided for the common "Defence, promoted the general Welfare, "and secured the Blessings of Liberty to us "and our Posterity."

On Thursday last arrived in Town from Philadelphia, the Hon. CHRISTOPHER G. CHAMPLIN, and THOMAS TILLINGHAST, Esquires, Representatives in Congress from this State; on Sunday the Hon. JOHN RUTLEDGE, jun. Representative in Congress from the State of South Carolina; and Yesterday Morning, the Hon. RAY GREENE and THEODORE FOSTER, Esquires, Senators from this State.

The following is a List of Appointments for the Army of Twelve Thousand, Men which is to be organized immediately:

ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Inspector General, with the Rank of Major General.

Major Generals.

CHARLES COTESWORTH PINCKNEY,
HENRY KNOX.

Brigadier Generals.

JOHN BROOKS, of Massachusetts,
WILLIAM WASHINGTON, of S. Carolina.
JONATHAN DAYTON, of New Jersey.
WILLIAM NORTH, of New York, Adjutant General, with the Rank of Brigadier General.
JAMES CRAIK, of Virginia, Physician General of the Army.

The following are the Officers of the Provisional Army of Ten Thousand, which is not to be raised until actual Danger of an Invasion shall be deemed to exist.

Major Generals.

HENRY LEE, of Virginia,
EDWARD HAND of Pennsylvania.

Brigadier Generals.

EBENEZER HUNTINGTON, of Connecticut.
ANTHONY W WHITE, of New Jersey.
WILLIAM RICHARDSON DAVIE, of N. C.
JOHN SEVIER, of Tennessee.
WILLIAM WYNDER, Esq; of Maryland, is appointed Accountant of the Department of the Navy.

We are informed, that a Battery of 9 or 12 Guns is to be erected on Brenton's Point, and another on Dyer's Point—A permanent One is proposed to be erected on Tammany Hill, of a superior Construction.—It is proposed to build the two first immediately.

The President, by a Proclamation, dated the 23th Instant, has revoked the Exequatur of the Consuls of the French Republic here, viz. of Citizens Letombe, Rozier, Arcambal, and Mozard.

"THOSE MAN WHOM THE" BOYS "DELIGHT TO HONOR"

The celebrated Matthew Lyon, on his Return from Congress through the State of New-Jersey, was honored with uncommon Marks of Attention by the Federal Boys, of Trenton and Brunswick. They gathered round him with a Curiosity and Eagerness that is generally discovered to obtain a Sight of any other strange Animal, and escorted him to a considerable Distance, playing the Rogue's March.

CINCINNATI.

The Society of Cincinnati, for the State of Rhode Island, at their Anniversary Meeting on the 4th of July, unanimously voted the following Address:

To the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES.

SIR,

THE State Society of Cincinnati of Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations, assembled to celebrate the Birth Day of our national Independence, beg Leave respectfully to address you, on the present momentous Crisis of our public Affairs; we have viewed the Progress of your Administration, with that Solicitude and Anxiety which becomes free Citizens, who know how to appreciate the Blessings of Liberty—And it is with extreme Regret, that we have observed the Attempts of certain profligate and designing Men to weaken the Bond of national Union, and diminish the Respect due to the Laws, the Constitution, and the Magistracy—But we are relieved from our Apprehensions by a clear Conviction, that the firm, patriotic and enlightened Policy pursued by the Chief Magistrate of the United States, supported by a great and respectable Majority of our Fellow-Citizens, will not only protect our Country from national Insult and Degradation—but place her on that Point of Elevation to which she is entitled by her Courage, her Virtues, and successful Struggle in the Cause of Freedom. With a Sincerity void of Duplicity, we assure you of our entire Approbation of all the Measures you have pursued to preserve the Peace of our Country, and it is with Indignation we have witnessed every Attempt to obtain an End so desirable to Humanity, and the Repose of Nations treated with Insolence and Contempt by a foreign Power, whose insidious Professions induced us to expect tranquillity, while her Conduct bade us arm to support our Sovereignty and Independence, or tamely submit to be governed by "Diplomatic Skill" and foreign Influence—We are determined to live and die free—And we are ready once more to rally round the Standard of our Country headed by that Illustrious Chief who at a Time that proved the Patriot and Hero led us to Victory and Independence.—Every Sacrifice which the future Circumstances of our Country may require, under whatever Leader, we shall consider as Nothing, when put in Competition with the Rights of a free, sovereign and independent Nation—and we hope and trust by the Blessing of Heaven, and the Wisdom of our Executive, aided by the Councils of the United States and the generous Efforts of her sons, that we shall be able to repel all foreign Aggression, and transmit unimpaired the fair Inheritance to our latest Posterity.

ISAAC SENTER, President.

Attest.

ROBERT ROGERS Secretary.

Newport, 4th July, 1798.

To the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for your respectful Remembrance of me on the Birth Day of our United States—the clear Conviction you acknowledge of the firm, patriotic and enlightened Policy, pursued by the Chief Magistrate of the United States, after a Review of the Progress of his Administration, will encourage his Heart, and strengthen his Hands—Our Country, supported by a great and respectable Majority of its Inhabitants, will not only be protected from a degrading Submission to national Insults, but be placed, I trust, on that point of Elevation, where by her Courage and Virtues, she is entitled to stand. The best "Diplomatic Skill" that I know of, is honesty, and whenever the Nation we complain of, shall have Recourse to that, she may depend upon an Opportunity to boast of the Success of her Address—'till then she will employ her Finesse in vain. On the Day you resolved to live and die free—and declared yourselves ready to rally round the Standard of your Country, headed by that illustrious Chief who at a Time that proved the Patriot and the Hero, led you to Victory—I was employed in the best of Measures in my Power, to obtain a Gratification of your Wishes—which I am not without Hopes may prove successful—In a Country like ours, every Sacrifice ought to be considered as Nothing—when put in Competition, with the Rights of a free and sovereign Nation, and I trust, that by the Blessing of Heaven and the Valor of our Citizens, under their ancient and glorious Leader, you will be able to transmit your fairest Inheritance to Posterity.

JOHN ADAMS.

Philadelphia, July 12th, 1798.

The Volunteer drank at the Meeting of Dunlap's Troop, Philadelphia, was

"The Fair Sex—The only human Beings to whom we will ever bend the Knee."

Amount of Flour inspected at Alexandria, for the last Three Months, ending the 30th of June—26,456 Whole, and 1,621 Half Barrels.

DIED]—In London, aged 31, Mr. WILLIAM JENKINS, a Clerk in the Bank. This Gentleman measured the extraordinary Height of 7 Feet 9 Inches.

—In Boston, THOMAS FRASER, Esq; of London, long a very eminent Merchant of that City, aged 65.

—At Providence, on Wednesday last, in the 51st Year of her Age, Mrs. LYDIA FOSTER, Consort of the Hon. Theodore Foster, Esq; and Sister to his Excellency the Governor.

—In this Town, Miss ELIZABETH BAILEY, in the 77th Year of her Age.

CUSTOM-HOUSE,
District of Newport, July 23.

ENTERED,

	from
Schooner Peggy, Irish,	Frenchman's Bay
Sloop George Brown,	New York
—— Two Brothers, Brown,	Digbton
—— Aurora, Cahoone,	New York
—— Eagle, Earl,	Ditto
—— Friendship, Benthall,	Turks Island

CLEARED,

	for
Schooner Polly, Lunt,	Boston
Sloop Eliza, Peterson,	New York
—— Concord, Cahoone,	Ditto
—— Weasel, Miller,	Ditto
Schooner Curziah, Barker,	Charlestown
Sloop Leopard Farnum	Providence
—— Quick Times, Cleveland,	New York
—— Friendship, Bliss,	Ditto
—— Nancy, Burr	Norfolk

TO BE SOLD BY
William Douglass,
At his Shop, in Broadway—very cheap for CASH.

ABOUT 600 ready made SHIRTS and SHEETS (Linen and Muslin.

50 Wt. of the best Essence of Spruce.

Also, a general and good Assortment of West India Goods.

Newport, 24th July, 1798.

TO BE SOLD,
A DWELLING-HOUSE, and Lot of Land with a Stable thereon, about 57 Feet Front, and 54 back, late belonging to the Estate of Edith Gibbs, situate and adjoining Northward to the House and Lot now occupied by William Ellery, Esq—Any Person inclining to purchase, may know the Terms by applying to the Subscriber, who will give an indisputable Title to the same.

S. WATSON.

Newport, July 23 1798.

Elegant Vessel for Sale.

FOR SALE the fine New Packet POMONA, Burthen 72 Tons, in compleat Order for Sea—Her Character as a staunch fast sailing Vessel is so well established, that she needs no other Recommendation but to be seen. For Particulars inquire of

PHILIP ROBINSON.

Newport, 24th 7th Month 1798.

House & Gardens for Sale.

The Subscriber will sell the HOUSE wherein he now Dwells with the LOTS thereto belonging, and the FURNITURE of the same.

CHRIST. ELLERY.

Newport, July 2, 1798.

For Sale, by
THOMAS HANDY,
At the Sugar House lately improved by Messieurs OVERING & AUCHMUTY,
Single and double-refined,
and Lump Sugar, by the Quantity, or single Loaf.—Also, MOLASSES of a superior Quality, for retailing.

New Goods.

John Bours, jun.
Respectfully informs his Friends and the Public in general, That he has just received, at his Store, directly opposite Gen. Martin's,
A Beautiful Assortment of the most fashionable DRY GOODS, which he is determined to sell very low.

J. B. jun. returns his Thanks to his Customers, and requests a Continuance of their Favours.

Newport, May 28, 1798.

Stephen Pierce
HAS FOR SALE,
BUNTING and ready made COLOURS. Also, an Assortment of neat GUN-LOCKS and BRASS FURNITURE, POWDER and SHOT; a few Bags of ANNISEED, a Quantity of excellent MUSTARD in Bottles, a small Assortment of GLASS WARE of superior Quality, and an Assortment of CROCKERY WARE.

Twenty Barrels of ROZIN.

A Quantity of excellent Spanish SEGARS.

From the Gazette of the United States.

Sung at the meeting of the Cincinnatis

TOUGH TIMES.

An ODE, for the 4th of JULY.

THERE's Ichabod has come to town
From Philadelphia city,
He's stroll'd the streets all up and down
And brought nice tales to fit ye.
He's been among the peoplish Folks
And vows they're rotten clever
They talk so 'cute and crack such jokes
Would make one split forever.
Yankee doodle, doodle do,
Yankee doodle dandy.
When times run tough, the heart that's true
Is sweet as 'lasses candy.

II.

Some say, you lie—then Order cry—
Some spit, some notions eating—
Some move—some sit as mute and sly
As Chairmen at Town meeting.
Some talk like Yes—and come out No—
Some laugh at French invasion;
But in a little while or so,
We'll see what's the occasion.
Yankee doodle, &c.

III.

Yet we'll love Yankee land the best,
Stand by her flout as Stingo,
Tho' sorely slump'd with such a pest
As Folks with foreign lingo
They rage for peace who once croak'd War,
And make tarnation wonder,
Because no longer we can bear
Our Friends should rob and plunder.
Yankee doodle &c.

IV.

There's some count cost with swamping Rant
These crawl that they may clamber
And sing the room with peoplish cant
Tho' big as our Barn Chamber.
To spare some cents they twist and turn,
Tho' Fleets and Armies crave them,
And should our towns be like to burn,
They can't afford to save them.
Yankee doodle &c.

V.

For time some talk—and some for spite—
They wince and growl when ground hard,
And bobbie when they must go right,
Like our old Ball that's founder'd.
Tho' some be weak, yet many are strong
As Flip with Rum and Cider,
And if they all can get along,
Our ship—why let 'em guide her.
Yankee doodle &c.

VI.

If something's wrong, there's more that's right
The leaks will soon be spied out,
And with our vessel staunch and tight,
The gale we'll scud or ride out.
Our Yankee Chief shall con our course
Tho' Foes may gibe or 'rate him,
And while he Ready keeps—the worse
The Serpents hiss and hate him.
Yankee doodle &c.

VII.

He saw our Envoy found and true,
Who left the City a frothing,
And is among the nation few
One likes—for doing nothing;
For nothing 'tis to assert our Right,
When hollow Friends would shake it,
And bring th' old Serpents schemes to Light,
Nor give a Bribe, nor take it.
Yankee doodle, &c.

VIII.

He tells us of one Tallyrand
Who strove to hum and fob us;
And if we'd give our purse, and stand—
Mayhap—they would not rob us.
But let us all now tackle to
And join all hands at muster;
We'll keep our cash to fight the crew,
Not fear their threats or bluster.
Yankee doodle &c.

IX.

Let's all with honest heart and soul
At soldier's trade be handy;
Curse Ca Ira and Carmagnole,
And march to Doodle Dandy;
Then let them come, with force or ham,
If they'll fight fair, we'll beat 'm:
And for their "Skill" and tricks—but mum—
By sounds we've to ka can cheat 'em.
Yankee doodle, &c.

X.

Our tried old chief is coming forth,
Again to lead and love us;
Again to shew his strength and worth,
When foes insult and brave us:
Our Nation's boast—his name a host;
Let Foes and Traitors fear him;
For Washington each Patriot's toast
Tho' wine is no land cheer him.
Yankee doodle, doodle doo,
Yankee doodle dandy
When times run tough, the heart that's true.
Is sweet as 'lasses candy

JOHN BOURS,

At the Sign of the golden EAGLE,

INVITES his Friends, old Customers, and others, to his Shop, where a very handsome Assortment of GOODS, suitable for the Season, just imported, will be found, upon as low Terms, for Cash, as at any Store in the State. June 11.

Moses Judah

Has just received by the Brig Polly from Richmond, which he will dispose of on the lowest Terms, at his House, directly opposite to the Shop of Mr. James Center, Hair Dresser, in Thames-street,

A fresh Supply of prime Virginia manufactured sweet scented NEGRO HEAD TOBACCO,

50 Barrels fine Flour,
100 Bushels black-eye'd Peas.

Newport, July 9th, 1798.

TO BE SOLD, BY

Elisha Gibbs,

INDIAN CORN, by the Bushel or larger Quantity,
Bacon, by the Piece or Quantity,
Pork, by the Barrel,
Carolina Peas, by the Bushel or Quantity,
Whale Oil, by the Barrel.

Newport, July 9, 1798.

Thomas Green

At the BUCK, near the Red Market,

Having just Imported, a FRESH SUPPLY of

ENGLISH and INDIA

GOODS,

Has now on Hand, a very extensive Assortment, which he is selling at the usual low Prices!——And,

N. B. While he feels very grateful to his good Customers, for past Favours, and begs a Continuance of the same, earnestly entreats those, who are delinquent, in Town and Country, to discharge their respective Obligations.

N. B. Home made CLOTHS taken in Pay, as heretofore.

Newport, June 5, 1798.

For SALE, by

John Handy,

At his Store on his Wharf,

ROCK SALT, by the Hundred Bushels, or less Quantity.

ALSO,

A few Barrels brown SUGAR.

John Baker

Respectfully informs the Public, that he continues the Business as usual and has for Sale, at his Store, formerly occupied by Mr. STEPHEN PIERCE, at the Head of Banister's Wharf,

BRANDY by the Pipe, Quarter Cask and Gallon, 1st, 2d, and 4th Proof
West India Rum, by the Barrel or Gallon.
New England Rum by the Barrel or Gallon.
Geneva by the Barrel or Gallon.
Brown Sugar by the Barrel,
White Spanish Flote by Do.
Loaf Sugar by the Hundred or Loaf,
Flour by the Barrel, fine and superfine.
Souchong Tea, by the Dozen or lb.
A general Assortment of Glass Ware.
Liverpool Crockery Ware, consisting of best printed, enamel'd, pencil'd, and common Ditto.
An elegant Assortment Morocco Shoes.
Coarse and Fine Salt.

Also, a Variety of other Articles, in the Grocery Line, which he will dispose of at a reduced Price for Cash.

JUST LANDED,
From on board the Brig Favorite, and for Sale, by

Benjamin Fry,

BALTIMORE Superfine and fine Flour—new, fresh and cheap,
Indian Corn,
Cotton Wool,
Cocoa,
Twelve Tons Logwood, (imported from Hispaniola)
Turpentine, per Barrel,
And a small Quantity yellow Pine, flooring Boards, saw'd narrow.

Newport June 8, 1798.

Stephen Deblois

Informs his Customers and others he has just received an additional Supply of Goods, among which are—

ELEGANT Tea Urns; Plated Patent Candlesticks; Tea Trays; Looking Glasses;—Castors; Silk and Worsted, Cotton, Thread and Worsted Hose; a large Assortment in the different Hardware Branches,—on lowest Terms for Cash—of which, he begs his Customers will recollect, he is much in want of.

June 10th.

Military Notice to our Fellow-Citizens.

AN Opportunity now presents for the Admission of a small Number of Members, in the Artillery Company of the Town of Newport, to make up its Complement as established by Charter.

Those Citizens who are desirous of enrolling themselves in this Company, are invited to leave their Names with either of the Members.

By Order of the Artillery Company.
HOLMES WEAVER, Clerk.
Newport, July 4th, 1798.

Ethan Clarke

HAS FOR SALE,

BRANDY by the Pipe,
Jamaica Spirits by Puncheon,
Beef and Pork by the Barrel,
Iron Cabooses, and Stoves,
Anchors, &c. as usual—And,
A few Chests of Bohea Tea.

For SALE, by

Simeon Martin,

SIXTY Hogsheads of good Retailing Surinam Molasses,
15 Hogsheads of Old Windward Island Rum, 3d Proof,
1500 Bushels of St. Martin's Coarse Salt,
Coffee by the Barrel,
Cotton, by the Bag;—and,
TICKETS in the Rhode-Island College LOTTERY.

WE the Subscribers being appointed Commissioners to receive and examine the Claims against the Estate of the late SAMUEL TRIPP, Blacksmith, deceased, represented insolvent, hereby request all Persons having any Demands, to exhibit them to either of us, within Nine Months from this Date—that being the Time allowed said Commissioners to report thereon.

ANDREW BOYD,
JONATHAN SALISBURY.

East Greenwich, July 2, 1798

Robert Lawton,

Respectfully acquaints his Customers, and the Public in general, that he has just received, and has for Sale at his Store, in Thames-street, opposite Mr. GEORGE GIBBS's, a large and complete Assortment of DRY GOODS, suitable for the approaching Season, consisting of SUPERFINE and 2d Broadcloths, and Cassimeres—a great Variety of Fancy Vesting; Coatings; Baizes; Flannels; Elasticks and Plains; Calicoes and Chintzes; Sattins; Modes; Lutestrings; Tiffanies, &c. &c.

Also, Ladies' Satin, Beaver and Common HATS; Gentlemens', Yeoman and Crown Ditto; low priz'd Mens' and Boys' Ditto; with a Variety of other Articles.

SIMON DAVIS,

HAS FOR SALE,

BRANDY and Holland Gin per Pipe, Barrel or smaller Quantity,
Jamaica Spirits, St. Croix, Antigua and New England Rum per Hogshead,
A few Hogsheads of excellent St. Croix Rum, of an excellent Flavour,
Sugar per Hogshead or Barrel,
Molasses per Hogshead, Tierce or Barrel,
Very good fine and superfine Flour,
Welch's Chocolate, No 1 and 2, fresh,
A few Half Barrels of good Rice,
Fresh Raisins per Cask,
Sherry and Lisbon Wine per Quarter Cask,
Best brown Stout Porter,
A few Barrels first Quality powdered Sugars,
Castile Soap, per Box,
And a few Anchors.

The above mentioned Articles by Retail.

A New Supply of assorted Crates of CROCKERY WARE.

Also—Glass Ware, by Wholesale and Retail; and many other Articles in the Grocery Line.——Likewise, a few Thousand of Shingles and Laths—London Porter.

☞ 41 Hogsheads of New England Rum, cheap for Cash—(entitled to the Drawback)—will sell Part or all.

A few Casks of fresh Rice,
Goodeve and Brown's Soap, of New York, per Box, or larger Quantity,
Fresh Flour, and, also,
A Quantity of excellent blown SALT, by Wholesale and Retail, at his Store, and at the Store of Capt. John Coggeshall.

HOLMES WEAVER,

CABINET and CHAIR-MAKER,

Informs the Citizens of Newport, and its Vicinity,

THAT he has taken a SHOP, in MEETING-STREET, a little Northward of the Printing Office, where he carries on the above Business, in all its various Branches.

He flatters himself, that an anxious Solicitude to please, will insure him the Patronage of a generous Public, in an Art conducive to Elegance:—Assuring them they shall be supplied, with every Article in his Line, as cheap as can be procured (of an equal Quality) in New-York or Philadelphia.

The most fashionable and approved Patterns will be constantly procured, and neatly executed.

All Kinds of inlaid and ornamental Work, done in the most fanciful Manner.

Likewise—beautiful Japan Varnishing done at the most reduced Prices; which is the highest and most transparent Polish, hitherto invented.

☞ The above Varnish may be applied to old Furniture, without the Trouble of removing it.

To be Sold, by

SHEFFIELD ATTWOOD

WEST-INDIA and New England RUM, by the Hogshead or Barrel.
BRANDY and GENEVA, by the Pipe or Barrel.
Good MOLASSES, for Retailing, by the Hogshead or Barrel.
Brown SUGAR, by the Hogshead or Barrel
Fine and Superfine FLOUR, by the Barrel
Hyson TEA, by the Dozen, or Pound.
Bohea TEA, by the Half Chest.

On COMMISSION.

A Schooner of 62 Tons Burthen, will carry 540 Barrels, One Year old, completely rigged with 3 Cables and Anchors, a fast Sailer, and fit for a Packet to—One Half or the Whole to be Sold, or, if not, will take a Freight to any Part of the United States, on the short Notice.

Sundry Dwelling Houses, Situate in different Parts of this Town, Cheap for Cash.

He carries on the Baking Business in all its Branches.——He has on Hand, a Quantity of Ship and Cabin Bread, cheaper than can be imported of equal Quality.——He gives the highest Price for Old GOLD and SILVER

Newport, June 18, 1798.

From the Gazette of the United States.

Sung at the meeting of the Cincinnatii

TOUGH TIMES.

An ODE, for the 4th of JULY.

I.

THERE's Ichabod has come to town
From Philadelphia city,
He's stroll'd the streets all up and down
And brought nice tales to fit ye.
He's been among the peopliſh Folks
And vows they're rotten clever
They talk so 'cute and crack ſuch jokes
Would make one ſtare forever.
Yankee doodle, doodle do,
Yankee doodle dandy.
When times run tough, the heart that's true
Is ſweet as 'laſſes candy.

II.

Some ſay, you lie—then Order cry—
Some ſpit, ſome notions eating—
Some move—ſome ſit as mute and ſly
As Chairman at Town meeting.
Some talk like Yes—and come out No—
Some laugh at French invaſion;
But in a little while or ſo,
We'll ſee what's the occaſion.
Yankee doodle, &c.

III.

Yet we'll love Yankee land the beſt,
Stand by her ſtout as Stingo,
Tho' ſorely ſtump'd with ſuch a peſt
As Folks with foreign lingo
They rage for peace who once croak'd War,
And make tarnation wonder,
Becauſe no longer we can bear
Our Friends ſhould rob and plunder.
Yankee doodle &c.

IV.

There's ſome count-coſt with ſwamping Rant
Theſe crawl that they may clamber
And ring the room with peopliſh cant
Tho' beg at our Barn Chamber.
To ſpare ſome cents they twiſt and turn,
Tho' Fleets and Armies crave them,
And ſhould our towns be like to burn,
They can't afford to ſave them.
Yankee doodle &c.

V.

For time ſome talk—and ſome for ſpite—
They wince and growl when ground hard,
And hobble when they muſt go right,
Like our old Ball that's founder'd.
Tho' ſome be weak, yet more are ſtrong
At Flip with Rum and Cider,
And if they all can get along,
Our ſhip—why let 'em guide her.
Yankee doodle &c.

VI.

If ſomething's wrong, there's more that's right
The leaks will ſoon be ſpied out,
And with our veſſel ſtaunch and tight,
The gale we'll ſcud or ride out.
Our Yankee Chief ſhall con our courſe
Tho' Foes may gibe or 'rate him,
And while he Ready keeps—the worſe
The Sarpents hiſs and hate him.
Yankee doodle &c.

VII.

Ie ſaw our Envoy ſound and true,
Who left the Cits a frothing,
And is among the nation few
One likes—for doing nothing;
If nothing 'tis to aſſert our Right,
When hollow Friends would ſhake it,
And bring th' old Sarpents ſchemes to Light,
Nor give a Bribe, nor take it.
Yankee doodle, &c.

VIII.

He tells us of one Tallyrand
Who ſtrove to hum and fob us;
And if we'd give our purſe, and ſtand—
Mayhap—they would not rob us.
But let us all now tackle to
And join all hands at muſter;
We'll keep our caſh to fight the crew,
Not fear their threats or bluſter.
Yankee doodle &c.

IX.

Let's all with honeſt heart and ſoul
At ſoldier's trade be handy:
Curſe Ca Ira and Carmagnole,
And march to Doodle Dandy;
Then let them come, with force or hum,
If they'll fight fair, we'll beat 'm:
And for their "Skill" and tricks—but mum—
By sounds—we've to ka can cheat 'em.
Yankee doodle, &c.

X.

Our tried old chief is coming forth,
Again to lead and ſave us;
Again to ſhew his ſtrength and worth,
When foes inſult and brave us:
Our Nation's boaſt—his name a hoſt;
Let Foes and Traitors fear him;
As Waſhington each Patriot's toaſt
Then riſe to hail and cheer him.
Yankee doodle, doodle doo,
Yankee doodle dandy
When times run tough, the heart that's true.
Is ſweet as 'laſſes candy

JOHN BOURS,

At the Sign of the golden EAGLE,

INVITES his Friends, old Cuſtomers, and others, to his Shop, where a very handſome Aſſortment of GOODS, ſuitable for the Seaſon, juſt imported, will be found, upon as low Terms, for Caſh, as at any Store in the State. June 11.

Moſes Judah

Has juſt received by the Brig Polly from Richmond, which he will diſpoſe of on the loweſt Terms, at his Houſe, directly oppoſite to the Shop of Mr. James Center, Hair Dreſſer, in Thames-ſtreet,

A freſh Supply of prime Virginia manufactured ſweet ſcented NEGRO HEAD TOBACCO,

50 Barrels fine Flour,
100 Buſhels black-eye'd Peas.

Newport, July 9th, 1798.

TO BE SOLD, BY

Eliſha Gibbs,

INDIAN CORN, by the Buſhel or larger Quantity,
Bacon, by the Piece or Quantity,
Pork, by the Barrel,
Carolina Peas, by the Buſhel or Quantity,
Whale Oil, by the Barrel.

Newport, July 9, 1798.

Thomas Green

At the BUCK, near the Red Market,

Having juſt Imported, a FRESH SUPPLY of

ENGLISH and INDIA

GOODS,

Has now on Hand, a very extenſive Aſſortment, which he is ſelling at the uſual low Prices!——And,

N. B. While he feels very grateful to his good Cuſtomers, for paſt Favours, and begs a Continuance of the ſame, earneſtly entreats thoſe, who are delinquent, in Town and Country, to diſcharge their reſpective Obligations.

N. B. Home made CLOTHS taken in Pay, as heretofore.

Newport, June 5, 1798.

For SALE, by

John Handy,

At his Store on his Wharf,

ROCK SALT, by the Hundred Buſhels, or leſs Quantity.

ALSO,

A few Barrels brown SUGAR.

John Baker

Reſpectfully informs the Public, that he continues the Buſineſs as uſual and has for Sale, at his Store, formerly occupied by Mr. STEPHEN PIERCE, at the Head of Baniſter's Wharf,

BRANDY by the Pipe, Quarter Caſk and Gallon, 1ſt, 2d, and 4th Proof
Weſt India Rum, by the Barrel or Gallon.
New England Rum by the Barrel or Gallon.
Geneva by the Barrel or Gallon.
Brown Sugar by the Barrel.
White Spaniſh Flote by Do.
Loaf Sugar by the Hundred or Loaf.
Flour by the Barrel, fine and ſuperfine.
Souchong Tea, by the Dozen or lb.
A general Aſſortment of Glaſs Ware.
Liverpool Crockery Ware, conſiſting of beſt printed, enamel'd, pencil'd, and common Ditto.
An elegant Aſſortment Morocco Shoes.
Courſe and Fine Salt.

Alſo, a Variety of other Articles, in the Grocery Line, which he will diſpoſe of at a reduced Price for Caſh.

JUST LANDED,
From on board the Brig Favorite, and for Sale, by

Benjamin Fry,

BALTIMORE Superfine and fine Flour—new, freſh and cheap,
Indian Corn,
Cotton Wool,
Cocoa,
Twelve Tons Logwood, (imported from Hiſpaniola)
Turpentine, per Barrel,
And a ſmall Quantity yellow Pine, flooring Boards, ſaw'd narrow.

Newport June 8, 1798.

Stephen Deblois

Informs his Cuſtomers and others he has juſt received an additional Supply of Goods, among which are—

ELEGANT Tea Urns; Plated Patent Candleſticks; Tea Trays; Looking Glaſſes;—Caſtors; Silk and Worſted, Cotton, Thread and Worſted Hoſe; a large Aſſortment in the different Hardware Branches,—on loweſt Terms for Caſh—of which, he begs his Cuſtomers will recollect, he is much in want of.

June 10th.

Military Notice to our Fellow-Citizens.

AN Opportunity now preſents for the Admiſſion of a ſmall Number of Members, in the Artillery Company of the Town of Newport, to make up its Complement as eſtabliſhed by Charter.

Thoſe Citizens who are deſirous of enrolling themſelves in this Company, are invited to leave their Names with either of the Members.

By Order of the Artillery Company,
HOLMES WEAVER, Clerk.

Newport, July 4th, 1798.

Ethan Clarke

HAS FOR SALE,

BRANDY by the Pipe,
Jamaica Spirits by Puncheon,
Beef and Pork by the Barrel,
Iron Caboofes, and Stoves,
Anchors, &c. as uſual—And,
A few Cheſts of Bohea Tea.

For SALE, by

Simeon Martin,

SIXTY Hogſheads of good Retailing Surinam Molaſſes,
15 Hogſheads of Old Windward Iſland Rum, 3d Proof,
1500 Buſhels of St. Martin's Coarſe Salt,
Coffee by the Barrel,
Cotton, by the Bag;—and,
TICKETS in the Rhode-Iſland College LOTTERY.

WE the Subſcribers being appointed Commiſſioners to receive and examine the Claims againſt the Eſtate of the late SAMUEL TRIPP, Blackſmith, deceaſed, repreſented inſolvent, hereby requeſt all Perſons having any Demands, to exhibit them to either of us, within Nine Months from this Date—that being the Time allowed ſaid Commiſſioners to report thereon.

ANDREW BOYD,
JONATHAN SALISBURY.

East Greenwich, July 2, 1798

Robert Lawton,

Reſpectfully acquaints his Cuſtomers, and the Public in general, that he has juſt received, and has for Sale at his Store, in Thames-ſtreet, oppoſite Mr. GEORGE GIBBS's, a large and complete Aſſortment of DRY GOODS, ſuitable for the approaching Seaſon, conſiſting of SUPERFINE and 2d Broad-cloths, and Caſſimeres—a great Variety of Fancy Veſting; Coatings; Baizes; Flannels; Elaſticks and Plains; Calicoes and Chintzes; Sattins; Modes; Luteſtrings; Tiffanies, &c. &c.

Alſo, Ladies' Satin, Beaver and Common HATS; Gentlemens', Yeoman and Crown Ditto; low priz'd Mens' and Boys' Ditto; with a Variety of other Articles.

SIMON DAVIS,

HAS FOR SALE,

BRANDY and Holland Gin per Pipe, Barrel or ſmaller Quantity,
Jamaica Spirits, St. Croix, Antigua and New England Rum per Hogſhead,
A few Hogſheads of excellent St. Croix Rum, of an excellent Flavour.
Sugar per Hogſhead or Barrel,
Molaſſes per Hogſhead, Tierce or Barrel,
Very good fine and ſuperfine Flour,
Welch's Chocolate, N° 1 and 2, freſh,
A few Half Barrels of good Rice,
Freſh Raiſins per Caſk,
Sherry and Liſbon Wine per Quarter Caſk,
Beſt brown Stout Porter,
A few Barrels firſt Quality powdered Sugars,
Caſtile Soap, per Box,
And a few Anchors.

The above mentioned Articles by Retail.

A New Supply of aſſorted Crates of CROCKERY WARE.

Alſo—Glaſs Ware, by Wholeſale and Retail; and many other Articles in the Grocery Line.——Likewiſe, a few Thouſand of Shingles and Laths—London Porter.

☞ 41 Hogſheads of New England Rum, cheap for Caſh—(entitled to the Drawback)—will ſell Part or all.

A few Caſks of freſh Rice,
Goodeve and Brown's Soap, of New York, per Box, or larger Quantity,
Freſh Flour, and, alſo,
A Quantity of excellent blown SALT, by Wholeſale and Retail, at his Store, and at the Store of Capt. John Coggeſhall.

HOLMES WEAVER,

CABINET and CHAIR-MAKER,

Informs the Citizens of Newport, and its Vicinity,

THAT he has taken a SHOP, in MEETING-STREET, a little Northward of the Printing Office, where he carries on the above Buſineſs, in all its various Branches.

He flatters himſelf, that an anxious Solicitude to pleaſe, will inſure him the Patronage of a generous Public, in an Art conducive to Elegance:—Aſſuring them they ſhall be ſupplied, with every Article in his Line, as cheap as can be procured (of an equal Quality) in New-York or Philadelphia.

The moſt faſhionable and approved Patterns will be conſtantly procured, and neatly executed.

All Kinds of inlaid and ornamental Work, done in the moſt fanciful Manner.

Likewiſe—beautiful Japan Varniſhing done at the moſt reduced Prices; which is the higheſt and moſt tranſparent Poliſh, hitherto invented.

☞ The above Varniſh may be applied to old Furniture, without the Trouble of removing it.

To be Sold, by

SHEFFIELD ATTWOOD,

WEST-INDIA and New-England RUM, by the Hogſhead or Barrel.
BRANDY and GENEVA, by the Pipe or Barrel.
Good MOLASSES, for Retailing, by the Hogſhead or Barrel.
Brown SUGAR, by the Hogſhead or Barrel
Fine and Superfine FLOUR, by the Barrel
Hyſon TEA, by the Dozen, or Pound.
Bohea TEA, by the Half Cheſt.

On COMMISSION.

A Schooner of 62 Tons Burthen, will carry 540 Barrels, One Year old, completely rigged with 3 Cables and Anchors, a faſt Sailer, and fit for a Packet;—One Half or the Whole to be Sold, or, if not, will take a Freight to any Part of the United States, on the ſhorteſt Notice.

Sundry Dwelling Houſes, Situate in different Parts of this Town, Cheap for Caſh.

He carries on the Baking Buſineſs in all its Branches.——He has on Hand, a Quantity of Ship and Cabin Bread, cheaper than any imported of equal Quality.——He gives the higheſt Price for Old GOLD and SILVER.

Newport, June 11, 1798.